Alternative format of the Conditions of Registration for Apprentices

If you require this Conditions of Registration (Apprentices) document in an alternative format, please contact the Apprenticeship Enrolment and Support Team via phone +44 (0)300 303 4121, or email apprentice-support@open.ac.uk.

Introduction

These Conditions of Registration (Apprentices) set out the terms of the agreement between you and The Open University to study qualifications as part of an Apprenticeship Programme with The Open University.

The Conditions refer to relevant policies, procedures, regulations, and codes of practice which are listed in the Related Documentation section below. Together with the Apprenticeship Registration Agreement and Funding Rules specific to the Nation in which you are studying, these documents explain your rights and obligations as a Student of The Open University.

It is important that you understand the commitment you are making, so please read the Conditions and all other documents carefully. Please also check your Apprenticeship Registration Agreement before you submit it to make sure all details are correct.

A Glossary is included to explain any terms that may be unfamiliar to you. Throughout this document, where you see references to ‘we’, ‘us’, or ‘our’ this means The Open University. ‘You’ refers to you as the Student.

For the purposes of these Conditions of Registration and some other associated policies, you will be referred to as a Student of The Open University. As a Student studying an Open University qualification as part of an Apprenticeship Programme, you may also be referred to as a ‘Learner’.

If there is anything in the Apprenticeship Registration Agreement, these Conditions, or any of the documents referred to that you do not understand or wish to discuss, please contact your Apprenticeship Enrolment and Support Team (AEST).
These Conditions may be updated throughout the year to correct errors, improve clarity or accessibility, or reflect changes in legal or regulatory requirements. If these amendments occur after you have registered, you will be notified by email of any significant changes to this document.

A3.1 Health and Safety

The Open University has a duty to protect the health and safety of our Students, staff, contractors, and members of the public. To fulfil our Safeguarding duty (in line with The Open University Safeguarding Policy), our employees or agents have a statutory obligation to disclose relevant information to the internal Safeguarding team or external parties (for example, Child and Adult Protection Services, or the emergency services).

A5. Residence requirements

Please refer to the Funding Rules applicable to the Nation in which you are intending to enrol on an apprenticeship. These are available through the AEST or equivalent contact.
A6. Personal information

A6.1 The personal information we have collected from you is shown in the profile section of your StudentHome page (whilst you are a current Open University Student). We also keep records of your contact with us and your participation in learning activities.

A6.2 When you register to study with The Open University, the personal information that you have supplied will be used and processed in accordance with the Student Privacy Notice.

A6.3 We will share information about your participation in your studies with your Employer and the regulatory bodies associated with your apprenticeship. Further information is available in the Student Privacy Notice.

A6.4 We will inform your employer at Stage 2 of the Fitness to Study Policy if this is applied to you. Please refer to the Fitness to Study Policy for more details.

A6.5 It is important that the information we hold in our records is correct because we use it to process your registration, keep in touch with you, support you in your studies, provide services and facilities, and administer funding (including the payment and suspension of grants and loans).

It is your responsibility to keep your personal information up to date and to notify us without delay if you change your name, the country where you are resident or ordinarily resident, your employment/Employer, or any of your contact details. If you do not notify us of any changes or errors to your personal information, this may affect your ability to continue studying with us in line with Clause E2.1(a). Details of how to change any of your personal information, and the evidence we may require to update our records, are set out on the Help Centre.
A6.6 If you are awarded any Open University qualification, your certificate will be issued in the name that we hold in our records at the point when your qualification is Conferred. A certificate will only be amended or reissued in a different name after the date your qualification is conferred if:

i) an error was made by The Open University when recording your personal details; or

ii) a valid request is made under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 in conjunction with the Gender Identity Policy and Guidance; or

iii) we approve an application for a change of name on public safety grounds.

A7. Our right to make changes

A7.1 The Academic Regulations 2023/24 (Apprentices) sets out the circumstances in which The Open University may make changes to regulations, rules, curriculum, or qualifications. The Open University Student Protection Plan outlines the reasonable measures we will take to support you to continue studying if changes become necessary or there are circumstances which affect your study. The following paragraphs outline the circumstances in which we may make changes to these terms or to our educational services.

A7.2 Circumstances outside our control

The Open University will take all reasonable steps to provide the educational services that you have registered or enrolled to receive. There may be circumstances outside of our control where we are unable to do so either in part or in full for reasons such as fire, flood, pandemic, war, terrorist acts or industrial disputes. Where those or similar circumstances arise, we will minimise disruption as much as possible and wherever practicable, provide you with reasonable alternative arrangements to continue studying.
A7.3 Maintenance of academic standards

a) The Open University may suspend or cancel registrations and enrolments for a module if we are unable to guarantee academic standards at the start date of the module:

i) in the case of the first presentation of a module where notice has been given during the registration process that the module is under development or subject to obtaining accreditation or validation, and we are unable to guarantee that the appropriate academic standards will be met, or that any relevant accreditation or validation will be secured by the time the module starts; or

ii) for any other module, there has been an unforeseen development in the subject area, teaching or assessment methods since registration opened for that academic year that requires significant change to maintain the currency or academic standards of the module or our academic reputation, that we are not reasonably able to make before it starts; or

iii) there has been an unforeseen withdrawal of accreditation or validation for a module since registration opened for that academic year that we are unable to resolve before the module starts.

b) The Open University will make all reasonable efforts to inform you of any such changes as early as possible and to provide reasonable alternative arrangements, wherever practicable.

A7.4 Short-term changes to learning, teaching and assessment arrangements

The Open University may have to postpone, re-locate, re-structure or cancel tutorials, forums, day schools, residential schools, and other teaching sessions, assessments or examinations due to an event or circumstance beyond our control including, but not limited to, industrial action on the part of our staff or otherwise, short notice absence of teaching or other staff, or short notice unavailability of premises, facilities or materials. We will try to inform you of any changes as early as possible and provide reasonable alternative arrangements wherever practicable.
A7.5 Changes to Modules

A7.5.1 The Open University will not normally make changes to a module on which you are enrolled.

A7.5.2 A change to a module on which you are enrolled will normally only be made if it is required immediately to correct a significant error or omission as the result of a legal or regulatory requirement, or to meet the requirements of a validating or accrediting body.

A7.5.3 If a change is made to a module on which you are enrolled, we will give you and your Employer as much notice as possible of the change. If you or your Employer no longer wish to continue with the module, you will need to withdraw from the Apprenticeship Programme following the process outlined in Section J of the Academic Regulations 2023/24 (Apprentices).

A7.5.4 Modules on which Students are not yet enrolled may be changed or withdrawn at short notice.

A7.6 Limiting places available for registration

A7.6.1 There may be occasions where The Open University needs to restrict the number of places available to study a module at a particular start date. This could be for several reasons, such as limited tutor availability or limited availability of study resources.

A7.6.2 We will endeavour to resolve issues to enable all interested Students to study, however where this is not possible, Students may be asked to consider studying an alternative module, or study the module at an alternative start date.

A7.6.3 Where the maximum capacity is reached before the final enrolment date, we will administer a waiting list. Places will be allocated as and when they become available, using criteria determined by us, which will be applied on a case-by-case basis at our discretion. We will consider how much study you have left to complete your qualification, alternative module options available to you, and any time limits on completing your qualification. Students placed on a waiting list will be given as much notice as possible to decide their alternative study options should these be required.
A7.7 Changes to Qualifications

a) Availability of modules:

i) Your registration for a qualification (as part of an Apprenticeship Programme) will enable The Open University to enrol you on the modules required to complete the qualification. The modules that are available to count towards your qualification are set out in the Module Descriptors that you receive when you register for the Apprenticeship Programme.

ii) Apprenticeship qualifications have Planned Start and End Dates. The Apprenticeship Programme (including the qualification) must be completed within these dates. If you have not completed your qualification within the time that the modules indicated at the date of registration are available for study (as noted in Clause A7.7(a)(iii) below), The Open University will continue to make academically appropriate modules available to you so that you can complete your qualification. This is subject to any notice given of a change to the structure or study requirements of that qualification, or for its withdrawal.

iii) The Open University continually seek to enhance our Students' experience and ensure that qualifications remain valid, relevant, and current. The modules that are made available in the future will reflect those aims and may therefore not include the same subject content, teaching or assessment methods as the modules available at the start of your qualification. Modules on which Students are not yet enrolled may also be amended in line with any of the circumstances listed in Clause A7.2.

b) Changes in the structure or study requirements of a qualification:

i) A change to the structure or study requirements of a qualification on which you are registered will normally only be made if the change is required immediately to correct a significant error or omission, as the result of a legal or regulatory requirement, or to meet the requirements of a validating or accrediting body.

ii) The Open University will not normally make changes to the structure or study requirements of a qualification for Students who are registered on an apprenticeship programme.
iii) To ensure our qualifications remain relevant, or to respond to circumstances outside of our control, we may make changes to the structure of our qualifications. These may include the balance between core options and free choice modules (if applicable); the balance between coursework and examinations or other forms of assessment; the order of study and rules for progression through the qualification; and the requirements for attendance at or participation in specified learning activities.

iv) Where a change is made to the structure or study requirements of a qualification on which you are registered, you will be given as much notice as possible of the change. If you or your Employer no longer wish to continue with the new structure or study requirements, you would need to withdraw from the Apprenticeship Programme (see Section E1).

v) Where a professional, statutory or regulatory body or any other body accredits or validates your qualification:

- you will be awarded the qualification with accreditation if you have achieved the required credit.
- if accreditation is withdrawn or is not renewed before you complete your studies, The Open University will contact you to outline your options for qualification completion and the University's Student Protection Plan will apply.

Please contact the AEST for further information about accreditation of your qualification.

A7.8 Withdrawal of Qualifications

The circumstances in which The Open University may withdraw qualifications are set out within Section B of the Academic Regulations 2023/24 (Apprentices).
A8. Complaints and appeals

A8.1 The Open University has a Student Complaints and Appeals Procedure which you can use to raise any concerns. We are a member of the Scheme of Independent Adjudication for Higher Education established by the Higher Education Act 2004.

A8.2 We also have a specific complaints procedure for complaints relating to Welsh Language Standards. Details on this procedure are available in the document “Welsh Language Standards – Dealing with Complaints and Comments”.

Section B: Your fees

B1. Your agreement to pay tuition fees and other charges

B1.1 When you register as a Student of The Open University as part of an Apprenticeship Programme, your Employer or Funding Provider agrees to pay the tuition fees and other charges that are due in respect of your studies, as detailed in the Employer Written Agreement (or equivalent).

B1.2 We reserve the right to check any information you have given us against the Education Skills and Funding Agency (ESFA) eligibility criteria (or equivalent) and to recover any difference from your Employer if the checks show that a different fee or funding methodology should be applied. These checks may be made at any time, including after you have started studying. We may share data with external agencies to check that the correct fee has been applied. You may find it helpful to read How the OU uses student data.

B2. Failure to pay your fees and charges

B2.1 In England, your Employer must pay or agree to pay any fees and other charges that are due as set out in the Apprenticeship Training Services Agreement (Employer Written Agreement).

B2.2 If your Employer does not pay your tuition fees or any other charges when they become due, we may withdraw your registration.

B2.3 In Scotland, if Skills Development Scotland (SDS) do not confirm your eligibility for funding, we may need to review your registration.
Section C: Your learning

C1. Registering and enrolling on a module

When you are registered for your qualification, we will automatically enrol you on to the modules in your Individual Learning Plan. Automatic module enrolment will continue throughout your study.

When you study with The Open University, you and The Open University each share responsibility for learning and commit to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity.

C1.1 You agree to:

a) study the module materials, submit the module assessments at the times and in the manner specified, and complete the examinable component (if any).

b) submit work that is your own. If you submit someone else’s work or engage in other dishonest academic behaviour, we may need to take action under the Academic Conduct Policy.

c) complete your work-based learning in accordance with the rules that apply within the Nation you are studying. If you have any questions regarding the rules please contact the AEST or equivalent contact.

d) regularly record your work-based learning activities in your Individual Learning Plan/e-Portfolio.

e) comply with additional requirements as stated in the Apprentice Standards or Framework that you are following.

f) complete and provide evidence of Functional Skills (English and Maths) where required by your Funding Provider.

g) (if you are studying in England), complete your End-Point Assessment as described in the Apprentice Standard Assessment Plan that you are following.

h) comply with our Code of Practice for Student Discipline which sets out behaviour that may be considered unacceptable and the action we may take in response.
i) engage with our Fitness to Study Policy if requested. The policy will be followed to support students in situations where their behaviour raises concerns about their health, safety, and wellbeing, is impacting negatively on their academic progress or their ability to engage with their studies and/or with others.

j) abide by the relevant code of practice or ethics (detailed in our Fitness to Practise Procedure) if you are studying a professional programme that is governed by a Professional, Statutory, or Regulatory Body. The Fitness to Practise Procedure will be followed if you do not do so, which could lead to your registration being withdrawn by your regulatory body, or The Open University not recommending you for registration.

C1.2 The Open University agrees to:

a) provide a safe and supportive study environment that welcomes and values diversity, where everyone is treated with dignity and respect. We encourage staff, students, learners, and visitors to report incidents of assault, bullying, harassment, hate crime, or sexual harassment using Safe Space Reporting available through an online tool. The tool also provides information about what you can do if these incidents happen to you, or to someone you know, and where you can find support.

b) provide you with module materials, module assessments and module tuition as described in the module descriptors that you are sent upon application to the Apprenticeship Programme.

c) assess your submitted work as outlined in C2 below.

d) offer you one opportunity for an examination resit or resubmission of the examinable component of your module, where this is available. A resit or resubmission will only be offered if you are eligible under the assessment rules and/or the apprenticeship standard assessment plan applicable to the Nation in which you are studying. Fees for resits and retakes may be payable by your Employer.
C2. Assessment

C2.1 The Open University’s Code of Practice for Student Assessment will apply to the assessment of your module(s), and academic judgement will be applied by The Open University to determine the extent (if any) to which the learning outcomes of the module(s) have been met.

C2.2 For Functional Skills (English and Maths) qualifications, the rules of the awarding body of the Functional Skills qualification will apply.

C2.3 For End-Point Assessments (applicable to ESFA funded apprenticeships - England only) the rules of the awarding body of the End-Point Assessment will apply.

C2.4 Apprentices living in Wales have the right to submit written work in Welsh. Your work will be treated equitably to pieces of work submitted in English.

C3. The Residential School

C3.1 If one of your modules includes a compulsory residential school component or an equivalent activity that you must complete to demonstrate the skills needed for your qualification (‘equivalent activity’), you must participate satisfactorily, as defined in the learning outcomes of your module description or website, or you will fail the module.

C3.2 Some modules will provide an online school as an alternative to a residential school, that delivers the same core learning outcomes. It may involve a written assignment, online project and/or online conferencing. If your module does not have an online school, you must attend the residential school or equivalent activity, or you will not be able to pass the module.

C3.3 It is your responsibility to book a place at a residential school, online school, or equivalent activity. Bookings are subject to a time limit and availability, and you must follow the booking procedure on your module website.

C3.4 If you do not book a place, or if you are not sure that you will be able to attend a residential school or participate in the online school you have booked, you should immediately seek advice from the Residential Schools Team.
C3.5 If you are responsible for paying your residential school fee, cancellation charges may apply if you cancel your booking. The Cancellation Policy containing any cancellation charges will be published on the Residential School booking page for your module when the booking window opens. It is your responsibility to read this policy and if you have any questions, please contact the Residential Schools Team.

C4. Counting credit towards a qualification

If you are awarded credit for a module, you may be able to count that credit towards an Open University qualification as set out in the Academic Regulations (Taught Courses).

C5. Telling us about a disability

The Open University is dedicated to ensuring every student feels supported in their studies, and we strive to make all aspects of study accessible to everyone. If you have a disability that might affect your studies or assessments, we encourage you to tell us about it and provide any relevant information that we ask for. This will enable us to work together with you to understand your needs and make any reasonable adjustments that may be required, in line with our obligations under the Equality Act 2010 in England, Scotland, and Wales; the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004, or any other statutory duty or obligation.

C6. Tutorials

C6.1 You may be offered the opportunity to attend tutorials either online or face-to-face. The majority of tutorials are offered online. The Open University cannot guarantee face to face tutorials will be available close to where you live, and you may need to travel to attend these. Wherever possible, we will provide an online alternative to face-to-face tutorials so that Students who are unable to attend are not disadvantaged.

C6.2 The rules for the recording of online tutorials are set out in the Policy for the recording of online tutorials.
C7. Off the job hours

C7.1 Apprentices in England are required to capture evidence of their ‘off the job hours’ studies and to provide such information to The Open University. The method for capturing information is specific to the Apprenticeship qualification being studied. For more information and guidance please contact the AEST or equivalent contact.

C8. Apprentices Living in Wales

C8.1 If you live in Wales, you have the right to ask The Open University to allocate you a Welsh speaking Practice Tutor.

C8.2 Where we provide degree apprenticeship programmes in Wales, we will actively attempt to recruit Welsh-speaking Practice Tutors.

C8.3 If you have told us that you speak Welsh, we will match you with a Welsh speaking tutor if they have been recruited. You may choose to communicate with the tutor in Welsh or English or use both languages.

Section D: Your qualification

D1. Students who are studying a qualification as part of an Apprenticeship Programme

D1.1 Your registered qualification

a) Your registered qualification is shown in the Apprenticeship Registration Agreement and on your StudentHome (whilst you are a current Open University Student). The Open University will enrol you for modules that will enable you to achieve that qualification. We do not however, guarantee that any module or combination of modules shown in the published qualification information for your intended qualification will remain available in the future. Section A7 “Our rights to make changes” outlines how we may make changes to modules and/or qualifications.
D1.2 Time limits for completing your registered qualification

a) For Apprenticeships in England, the planned end date of your Apprenticeship will appear on your Training Plan and your Apprenticeship Agreement.

If you fail to disclose information regarding relevant, unspent criminal convictions that you are subject to or become subject to during your studies, you will have breached these Conditions. We may take action under the Code of Practice for Student Discipline (Sections SD1.3b and SD1.4c) which could affect your continued study with us (see Section E2: The Open University's right to cancel your registration or enrolment).

In these circumstances, you will not be required to make a self-disclosure, as any relevant information will be disclosed by the DBS or check and then considered in line with the requirements and policy for the programme concerned.

K6. Support and Confidentiality

K6.1 All records and correspondence relating to your disclosure will be stored securely in line with our Student Privacy Notice. Your consent will always be obtained before seeking further information about any disclosure from third parties.
