Once you have your Employer provided identities (i.e., work email address, work mobile number) we amend all of our student systems to reflect the Employer provided identity details, including recording your address as your Employer’s headquarters. We also keep records of your contact with us and your participation in learning activities.

A6.2 When you register to study with The Open University, the personal information that you have supplied will be used and processed in accordance with clause A6.1 above, and the Student Privacy Notice. This may include using the records we will keep of your participation in learning activities, to provide support to you in your studies.

A6.3 You must not update your contact records via StudentHome. You must instead inform your named contact within your Employer of any change. Your Employer will notify The Open University so we can update our records. We use the information that we hold in our records to process your registration, to keep in touch with you, to support you in your studies and to provide services and facilities, so it is important that it is correct. It is your responsibility to notify your Employer of any changes or errors. You must notify them within a reasonable time if you change your name, address, or any of your contact details.
A6.4 Throughout your DHEP we will share your data with your Employer. This data may relate to your engagement, progress, conduct, health, disability, reasonable adjustments, practice-based assignments, placements, and fitness to practise. The sharing of this data is necessary to your contract with The Open University as a DHEP Student and forms part of our legal and contractual requirement with your Employer for the funding, delivery and monitoring of your studies. See also Appendix Ap 1 for further information.

A6.5 If you are awarded a Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), any certificate in respect of that qualification will be issued in the name that we hold in our records at the point when your qualification is conferred. Any duplicate certificate issued will be in the same name as the original certificate (unless amended as above), even if a change of name may subsequently have been notified.

A7. Our right to make changes

A7.1 The Academic Regulations (Taught Courses) sets out in Section B the circumstances in which The Open University may make changes to regulations, rules, curriculum or qualifications. The following paragraphs outline the circumstances in which The Open University may make changes to these terms or our educational services.
A7.2 Circumstances outside our control

The Open University will take all reasonable steps to provide the educational services that you have registered or enrolled to receive. There may be circumstances outside of our control where we are unable to provide those services in full or in part for reasons such as fire, flood, pandemic, terrorist acts or industrial disputes. Where those, or similar circumstances arise, we will minimise disruption so far as we are reasonably able to and, wherever practicable, will provide you with reasonable alternative arrangements to continue with your studies.

A7.3 Maintenance of academic standards

a) The Open University may suspend or cancel registrations and enrolments for a module where it is unable to guarantee academic standards at the start date of the module:

i) in the case of the first presentation of a module only, where notice has been given during the registration process that the module is under development or subject to validation, and The Open University and your employing Police Force is unable to guarantee that the appropriate academic standards will be met or that any relevant validation will be secured by the time the module starts; or

ii) for any other module, there has been an unforeseen development in the subject area, teaching or assessment methods since registration opened for that academic year that requires significant change in order to maintain the currency or academic standards of the module or the academic reputation of The Open University that The Open University is not reasonably able to make before it starts; or

iii) there has been an unforeseen withdrawal of validation for a module since registration opened for that academic year that The Open University and your employing Police Force is unable to resolve before the module starts.

b) The Open University will make all reasonable efforts to inform you of any such changes as early as possible.
A7.4 Short-term changes to learning, teaching and assessment arrangements

The Open University may have to postpone, re-locate, re-structure or cancel tutorials, forums, day schools, and other teaching sessions, or assessments due to the occurrence of an event or circumstance beyond its reasonable control including, but not limited to, industrial action, whether on the part of the University’s staff or otherwise, short notice absence of teaching or other staff, or short notice unavailability of premises, facilities or materials. The Open University will make all reasonable efforts to inform you of any such changes as early as possible and to provide reasonable alternative arrangements wherever practicable to do so.

A7.5 Changes to Modules

A7.5.1 The Open University will not normally make changes to a module for Students who are enrolled on that module.

A7.5.2 A change to a module on which you are enrolled will normally only be made if the change is required immediately in order to correct a significant error or omission, as the result of a legal or regulatory requirement or in order to meet the requirements of a validating body.

A7.5.3 Where a change is made to a module on which you are enrolled, you and your Employer will be given as much notice as possible of the change and, if there is any detriment to you or your Employer as a result of the change, you or your Employer will be given the opportunity to withdraw from that module without penalty (see Section E1).

A7.6 Changes to Qualifications

A7.6.1 We will not normally make changes to the structure or study requirements of a qualification for Students who are registered on a DHEP.

A7.6.2 However, in any of the circumstances referred to in Clause A7.2, and if required by the College of Policing, The Open University may make changes to the structure of the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21). These may include such matters as the balance between coursework and other types of assessment, the order of study and rules for progression through the qualification, or the requirements for attendance at or participation in specified learning activities.
A7.8 Withdrawal of Qualifications

A7.8.1 The circumstances in which The Open University may withdraw a qualification are set out within Section B of the Academic Regulations (Taught Courses), “Changes to regulations and curriculum”. If you are registered on a Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21) and The Open University in agreement with your employing Police Force has approved the withdrawal of that qualification, you will be given notice of the withdrawal and a reasonable opportunity to complete your study before it is withdrawn.

A7.8.2 If The Open University decide to withdraw the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), you will still be able to complete it if you successfully pass all related assessments, academic, and practice or work-based modules as specified in the individual qualification description within the withdrawal period.

A7.8.3 You will normally be permitted to complete your qualification up to 12 months after the published withdrawal date.

A8. Your cancellation rights

A8.1 If you wish to withdraw from this agreement, you must discuss this with your Employer who will make arrangements to withdraw you from the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21) and associated modules. It is your Employer’s responsibility to inform the Open University of your withdrawal from the Programme. (To note, your Employer’s eligibility for a fee refund or a fee credit is set out in the contract we have with them.)

A8.2 Any decision to withdraw from this agreement may impact on your employment. You must discuss any intended withdrawal from study and the potential impact of that on your employment status with your Employer.

A8.3 If you wish to defer your Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21) and associated modules you must discuss this with both your Employer and The Open University, who will advise you of the options available. Once agreement has been reached with your Employer, The Open University will make arrangements for you to be withdrawn from the current presentation(s) of your module(s), and then re-registered on a later presentation of the modules.
A8.4 Further information about cancelling or ending your registration including the actions you must take to do so, can be found in Section E.

A9. Complaints and appeals

A9.1 The Open University has a Student Complaints and Appeals Procedure and is a member of the Scheme of Independent Adjudication for Higher Education established by the Higher Education Act 2004.

A9.2 The Open University also has a specific complaints procedure for complaints relating to Welsh Language Standards. Details on this procedure are available in the document “Welsh Language Standards – Dealing with Complaints and Comments”.

A10. Student discipline and Academic Misconduct

A10.1 The Open University has a Code of Practice for Student Discipline. When you register to study with The Open University, you agree to be bound by this code.

A10.2 The Open University has an Academic Conduct Policy. When you register to study with The Open University, you agree to comply with this policy.

A11. Fitness to Study

The Open University has a Fitness to Study Policy to support you if a mental, emotional or physical disability impacts on your ability to study, on other’s ability to study or on the teaching and administrative processes of The Open University. When you register to study with The Open University, you agree to engage with this Policy if requested by The Open University.

A12. Professional Standards and Fitness to Practise

A12.1 The Open University has a Fitness to Practise Procedure which should be followed where a professional programme offered by The Open University is governed by a Professional, Statutory or Regulatory Body (PSRB) that requires The Open University to declare that a Student is not only academically qualified to practise, but also suitable or fit to practise in that profession.
A12.2 When you register to study with The Open University for a Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), you explicitly acknowledge that you understand and agree to abide by the College of Policing Code of Ethics, as detailed in the Fitness to Practise Procedure. Failure to do so may result in this procedure being followed and can lead to your removal from the DHEP. This means that:

a) The Open University will share information about your academic performance and professional standards relating to your study on the DHEP with your Employer. In particular, information about issues relating to your conduct may be shared where it might affect your professional suitability or fitness to practise and your continued employment. Your Employer has the right to deal with employment related matters under their own procedures, independently to The Open University’s Fitness to Practise Procedure, however this procedure may also be invoked in respect of those matters.

b) The Open University may consider any concern through its Fitness to Practise Procedure and this may lead to conditions being applied to your continued registration on the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), your suspension, deregistration from the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), or your expulsion from The Open University.

c) If a concern is raised that you are not achieving or maintaining those standards at a level appropriate to your studies for the qualification, you may be referred under The Open University's Fitness to Practise Procedure.

d) You agree to notify The Open University as soon as practicable of any matter which may give rise to any concern about your ability to meet The College of Policing Code of Ethics, referring any such matter verbally, electronically or in writing to your Practice Tutor and/or Tutor Constable.

A12.3 If a Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21) has been awarded and any matters occurring before the award of the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21) subsequently come to light that, in the opinion of a Fitness to Practise panel, ought to have been declared and would have resulted in the withholding of the qualification, the matter shall be referred to the University’s Central Disciplinary Committee who has the power to withdraw the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21).
Section B: Your fees

B1. Agreement to pay tuition fees and other charges

B1.1 When you register as a Student of The Open University on the modules for the Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice (V21), your Employer agrees to pay the tuition fees and other charges that are due in respect of your studies.

B1.2 The tuition fee covers the tuition, materials (excluding set books) and assessment for the module(s). Please note that if you are required to purchase set books relevant to your studies, these do not need to be purchased from The Open University.

B1.3 There may be extra costs in addition to the tuition fee, such as a laptop, internet access, travel to tutorials and set books.

B2. Failure to pay fees and charges

B2.1 Your Employer must pay or agree to pay any fees and other charges that are due upon your registration onto a module and the qualification.

B2.2 If your Employer does not pay your tuition fees or any other charges when they become due, we may withdraw your registration, even if you have started studying.

Section C: Your learning
