Introduction

The Open University may charge different fees for Students in different countries, for different levels of study, for different modules and for Students who start or change their studies at different times. This is in line with the different ways in which higher education may be funded, the costs of providing educational services, or because The Open University provides a different range of services in different countries.

This document explains how to work out which fee scheme applies to you and what this means, so that The Open University can charge you the correct fee for your circumstances.

In addition, it explains the rules that apply to you for the payment of fees, and the Fee Refund and Credits policy that applies if your circumstances change during your studies.

This document should be read in conjunction with the Conditions of Registration, which you agree to when you register to study with The Open University. The Conditions of Registration set out your obligation to pay fees and the implications if these fees are not paid.

For specific guidance on how this policy may relate to your personal circumstances, please contact your Student Support Team.

Section A: Setting and changing fees

- A1 The Open University offers students the flexibility to study qualifications over an extended period, and it may therefore be necessary to make changes to fees, the fee rules and the fee policies during your studies.
- A2 Fees are set annually by The Open University Council and are published on each module description on the online prospectus.
- A3 Fees increase to cover the costs of delivering our courses and services to students. Any such increase will take into account our staffing and operation costs, changes in government funding, and the current rate of inflation and price indices (specifically the Consumer Price Index (CPI), Retail Price Index (RPI) and UK wage inflation).
- A4 Fee increases in England will also be limited to the maximum part-time tuition fee set by the Secretary of State for Education through the Higher Education and Research Act 2017.
- A5 Fees in Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales are not currently subject to a maximum part-time tuition fee limit. Fee increases in these Nations will take into account the funding received from each of the Nation funding bodies and will also take into consideration the criteria outlined in clause A3.
- A6 Fee increases for all other locations will take into consideration the criteria outlined in clause A3.
- A7 Over the past 10 years, the rate of annual fee increase has ranged between 1.0% and 7.4%.
- A8 Other changes to fees may include the introduction, modification or withdrawal of any offers, discounts and schemes which support, enhance or promote completion of studies or further enrolment to study.
- A9 The fees you will need to pay in any one academic year will usually be published in the spring of the preceding year (e.g. March 2023 prior to the start of the 2023/24 academic year).
- A10 If there are any significant changes to fees or the Fee Rules, The Open University will give reasonable notice of the changes and the date they take effect.

Section B: Working out your fee and funding liability

B1. Which fees apply to me?

- B1.1 During the registration process you will be advised of the fees that you have agreed to pay for the modules you have selected, as well as methods of payment, and the date by which payment should be made. All fees are quoted in pounds sterling.
- B1.2 The fee which applies to you is based on your 'Home Address' on the first day of the Seasonal Academic Year in which your first module begins. This must not be a temporary or work address. The Open University reserves the right to request evidence from you to confirm your home address. The residency criteria set out in Appendix 1 are used to work out whether you are eligible for the Standard Fee, Republic of Ireland Fee or the Devolved UK Nation Fee.
- B1.3 If you are studying a module on a standalone basis, your fee scheme will be reassessed each time you register for a module.
- B1.4 If you cease to study towards a declared or registered qualification, become a Returning Student and/or start a new qualification, your fee scheme will be reassessed when you resume your studies. The fee charged will depend on the time at which your studies resume and the duration of your period without study; and your funding eligibility may change.
- B1.5 If you have declared or registered for a qualification, the fee scheme determined in B1.2 will continue to apply for the duration of that qualification unless you move outside the UK.

B2. Liability for Standard Fees and Republic of Ireland Fees

You are liable to pay fees under the Standard Fee Scheme if you are an undergraduate Student who is ordinarily and lawfully resident in England, or any non-UK territory in which Open University study is available. If you are ordinarily resident in the Republic of Ireland, you will be liable for the Republic of Ireland Fee. If you are ordinarily resident in Northern Ireland, Scotland or Wales you will be liable for a Devolved UK Nation Fee as set out in Section B3.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

B3. Liability for a Devolved UK Nation Fee

You are liable to pay fees under the Devolved UK Nation Fee Scheme if your place of ordinary residence is in Northern Ireland, Scotland or Wales on the first day of the Seasonal Academic Year in which your first module begins.

B4. Additional information regarding funding for Students in England eligible for the Standard Fee

Undergraduate Students in England who began their qualification after 1 September 2012 are eligible to apply for a part-time tuition fee loan.

B5. Additional information regarding funding for Students in Wales eligible for the Devolved UK Nation Fee

B5.1 Students in Wales who are liable to pay the Devolved UK Nation fees, may pay fees of different amounts, depending on a number of factors outlined in Section B5.4, and may be eligible for different funding arrangements.

B5.2. Part-time Tuition Fee Loan

B5.2.1 Undergraduate Students in Wales who began their qualification after 1 September 2014, or those who resume Open University study after stopping for at least one academic year, are eligible to apply for a part-time tuition fee loan.

B5.3. Diamond Funding

B5.3.1 Students in Wales who began their qualification after 1 September 2018 are able to apply for additional funding products as well as a part-time tuition fee loan, as a result of the Diamond Review into Higher Education funding and student finance arrangements. These additional products are the Welsh Government Learning Grant, the Special Support Grant and/or a Maintenance Loan.

B5.3.2 Students who are continuing qualifications which began before 1 September 2018 are not eligible to apply for these additional products.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

B5.4 Eligibility for Transitional Welsh fees

B5.4.1 You will have been identified as eligible for the transitional Welsh fee if you have studied a module, incurring fee liability, towards an undergraduate qualification between 2014/15 and 2020/21 (inclusive). Your registered undergraduate qualification in the 2020/21 academic year is your declared qualification for continuing fee purposes.

B5.4.2 You will retain your eligibility for the transitional Welsh fee for modules studied as part of your declared qualification until one or more of the following occur:

- You attain enough credits to be offered your declared qualification.
- You complete your declared qualification and do not register on to a top-up qualification in the next academic year.
- You withdraw entirely from your declared qualification.
- You move outside the UK.
- You do not study for 2 seasonal academic years.
- You do not study for 1 seasonal academic year and when you return, you change your registered qualification.
- You withdraw from your part-time Open University qualification to study at a Full-Time Higher Education Provider (mode change).

B5.4.3 You will be eligible for the Standard Welsh Fee if:

- You are a new student who has not studied with The Open University before.
- You have previously studied Open University modules on a standalone module basis only.
- You have completed your undergraduate qualification and are starting another undergraduate module or qualification in 2021/22 or beyond.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- You have not studied an Open University module, incurring fee liability, towards an undergraduate qualification between 2014/15 and 2020/21 (inclusive) and are starting an undergraduate module or qualification after 1 August 2021.
- You have withdrawn from your previously declared qualification.

B6. Additional information regarding funding for Students in Northern Ireland eligible for the Devolved UK Nation Fee

- B6.1 From 1 August 2017, all Students in Northern Ireland became eligible to apply for a part-time tuition fee loan in addition, or as an alternative, to part-time fee grant support.
- B6.2 Part-time fee grant support is means tested and eligibility can only be confirmed following the submission of a formal application, accompanied by appropriate evidence of household income, to Student Finance Northern Ireland.
- B6.3 Where your award of fee grant support is insufficient to cover your full module fees and you do not cover the additional amount using a part-time tuition fee loan, you will be liable to pay the remaining balance in full by an alternative method to complete your registration.

B7. Changes to your home address, country of residence or study location

- B7.1 If your place of residency changes during your studies your Fee Liability may change. You must notify us within a reasonable time if you change your Home Address or any of your contact details. You are able to do this either online via your StudentHome or by contacting your Student Support Team. The Open University will ask for evidence that you are ordinarily and lawfully resident at the Home Address to check you are paying the correct fees.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- B7.2 If you move between UK Nations and are continuing to study towards the same qualification, with no break in study, your fee will not change. If this applies to you and you are in receipt of support from a UK funding authority, such as Student Finance England, Student Finance Wales, Student Finance Northern Ireland or the Student Awards Agency for Scotland, your support should continue to be provided by the same funding authority.
- B7.3 If you move from inside the UK to a non-UK study area, your fee eligibility will change and your entitlement to support from the UK funding authorities may cease.
- B7.4 If you begin a new qualification or take a break in study of at least two academic years, your fee will be reassessed based on your Home Address on the first day of the Seasonal Academic Year in which the new qualification begins.

B8. Maintenance Funding

- B8.1 In order to receive maintenance funding that you have been awarded, The Open University must confirm to the Funding Authority that The Open University is satisfied that you are engaging with your studies. The Open University uses information about your participation to confirm that you are studying to the Student Loans Company, who will then release payment to you. This process is referred to as Registration Confirmation. Further details about the ways The Open University might monitor your engagement and how The Open University will use this information are outlined in the Student Privacy Notice.
- B8.2 Registration will not be confirmed to the Funding Authority before Day 14 of the first module in the Seasonal Academic Year. This is the point that you become liable for your tuition fees and means that any maintenance payments due will not be received before this date. You should not expect to receive payment of any maintenance funding until at least 3 weeks after the start of your module.

Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

Section C: Study restrictions related to fees and funding

C1. Study restrictions relating to fees

C1.1 When you start studying with The Open University you are allocated a Seasonal Academic Year (SAY), defined in Table 1. Your SAY is determined by the start date of the first module you study with us towards your qualification. Your SAY may change if you take a break in your studies or if you change to a new qualification.

Table 1: Seasonal academic years

Module starts within	Seasonal Academic Year (SAY)	First day of the Seasonal Academic Year
1 August to 31 December	Autumn	1 September (1 August in Scotland)
1 January to 31 March	Winter	1 January
1 April to 30 June	Spring	1 April
1 July to 31 July	Summer	1 July

C1.2. In England, there is a limit to the fees that The Open University is legally entitled to charge a Student in a relevant Seasonal Academic Year. If you are liable to pay the Standard Fee in England and you are registered for an undergraduate qualification, the maximum fee that can be charged for all study undertaken as part of that qualification during a 2023/24 SAY is £6,935.

You may be required to withdraw from or defer enrolled and/or registered modules if the fee limit has been exceeded. The Open University will contact you if this is the case to discuss the options available to you.

C1.3 There are no legal maximum part-time fees in Wales, Northern Ireland or Scotland or for Students studying outside the UK.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

C2. Study restrictions relating to funding

- C2.1 If you are intending to pay your fees with the aid of a part-time fee grant in Scotland, you must study modules with a minimum value of 30 credits. You do not need to study towards a qualification to be eligible for this funding.
- C2.2 If you are intending to pay your fees with a part-time fee grant in Northern Ireland or a tuition fee loan in England, Wales or Northern Ireland, you must study modules with a minimum total value of 30 credits during your SAY in order to be eligible for the fee grant or fee loan. These modules must be linked to a qualification.
- C2.3 If, after the Module Start Date, you defer your studies and as a result you are no longer studying modules which meet the minimum value required in your Nation, you may no longer be eligible for the fee grant or fee loan and you may become personally liable for the fees. Please see Appendix 4 for more information if this applies to you.
- C2.4 Tuition fee support in Wales is subject to a cap of £2,625 per Seasonal Academic Year. Funding in Northern Ireland is subject to a cap of £3,532.50 per Seasonal Academic Year. You are permitted to register for study with total fees that exceed these caps, but any tuition fees which exceed these caps cannot be paid using funding awarded by your Funding Authority. You will be required to cover any excess costs yourself in order to complete your registration.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

Section D: Payment of your fees

- D1. Your obligation to pay fees is set out in the Conditions of Registration, which also contain the rules on what may happen if those fees are not paid.
- D2. The Open University's acceptance of any form of third-party funding for part or full payment of your fees, including tuition fee loans, tuition fee grants or sponsorship is dependent on you meeting any requirements set by the funding body for your eligibility to receive such funding. The Open University will normally require confirmation of your eligibility before we agree to your registration. If you are permitted to register under the Conditions of Registration before the confirmation is received, The Open University may cancel your registration under those Conditions if you do not obtain that confirmation within a reasonable time. You will be notified in advance if this is the case.
- D3. If The Open University has accepted payment from you or an agreed payment method that has been confirmed, and subsequently that payment or confirmation is withdrawn or does not fully meet the cost of your module fees as set out in the Conditions of Registration, The Open University may cancel your registration and recover any fees which are due from you in line with the Student Debt Policy.
- D4. If you are in debt to The Open University for your tuition fees, you will not be able to register for or pay for future study unless you pay in advance or have in place some other secured method of payment for those tuition fees or charges, which The Open University has accepted and which is in line with the Student Debt Policy. You cannot use a Fee Credit generated from a deferral or withdrawal of a module to reduce the amount of any debt.
- D5. Further information about what The Open University may do if you fail to pay your fees can be found in the Conditions of Registration and the Student Debt Policy.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

Section E: Cancelling, deferring or withdrawing from your study

- E1. This section should be read in conjunction with the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.
- E2. Under the Consumer Contract (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, you have a right to cancel your registration to study a module and/or qualification, without giving any reason, within 14 days of the date of confirmation of your registration. To exercise this right to cancel, you should follow the procedure laid out in the Conditions of Registration and the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.
- E3. If you wish to cancel your registration or make other changes to your study more than 14 days after the date of the email or letter confirming The Open University's acceptance of your application to register, you must follow the instructions in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.
- E4. In order to appropriately manage public funds, The Open University is required to monitor your engagement and participation in your studies. The Open University will use this information to determine whether we think you are actively studying towards your registered modules and may ask your Funding Authority to suspend payments to you if we cannot be certain of your participation. Further information is available in our Student Privacy Notice.
- E5. If The Open University determines you have ceased to study, but you have not informed us that you are deferring using the procedure detailed in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy, you will not be eligible for a Fee Refund or Credit, you will not receive maintenance support instalments you may be due, The Open University will not be able to claim further loan instalments for your tuition fees and your registration may be cancelled.
- E6. The effective date of any deferral or withdrawal for the purposes of calculating any entitlement to a Fee Refund or Fee Credit is outlined in Sections 5.11 and 5.12 of the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- E7. If you have paid your fees using a combination of payment methods, any Fee Credits or Refunds you are eligible for will be applied in proportion to the sums covered by the different payment methods.
- E8. Unless you are entitled to a Refund under Section F 'Fee Refunds', you must still pay the fees you agreed to when you registered to study, even if you subsequently defer your studies. This applies whether you are self-funding or paying your fees through a credit provider.
- E9. If you have paid your fees using an Open University Student Budget Accounts Limited (OUSBA) loan, and you wish to defer your studies, you should not simply stop studying and/or stop making payments but should formally notify The Open University of your intentions. If you do not formally notify The Open University, you will remain liable for the full fees and for making any payments due under your credit agreement. If there is any change to your Fee Liability or payment schedule as the result of deferring or withdrawing from your studies, OUSBA will contact you directly.
- E10. If, in the unlikely event The Open University needs to withdraw a module, qualification or programme of study, The Open University will take all reasonable steps to ensure that you are able to continue your studies, as outlined in our Student Protection Plan and Conditions of Registration. In circumstances where continuation of studies may not be possible, the Refund and Compensation Policy outlines the criteria where any Refunds or compensation will be awarded.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

Section F: Fee Refunds

- F1. If you cancel during the period outlined in Section E2 above, or more than 14 days after the date of confirmation of your registration for a module, but before the Module Start Date, you will receive a full Refund of any fees you have paid or a waiver of any fees you are liable to pay for the module(s) you have cancelled. Guidance on how you should do this is provided in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.
- F2. If you defer or withdraw after your module has started and more than 14 days after the date of confirmation of your registration you will only be entitled to a Refund or fee waiver in certain circumstances. Your entitlement will depend on your Home Address, funding method and the date on which you began your qualification or module. These entitlements are defined in Section H 'Levels of Fee Liability, Fee Refund and/or Fee Credit'.
- F3. If your fees have been paid (wholly or in part) by a grant from a UK funding authority or government agency (or equivalent), or by The Open University, you will not be personally eligible for a Refund for the grant element of the fee.
- F4. If you have paid your own fees or a sponsor has paid your fees (whether in whole or in part) you may be eligible for a Refund and/or a Fee Credit as outlined in Section H 'Levels of Fee Liability, Fee Refund and/or Fee Credit'.
- F5. If you change module, any Refund of fees due will be transferred to your new module. You must pay any difference between the original fee and the fee for your new module before the change can be completed. If the fee for your new module is lower than the original fee, you will receive a Refund of the difference.
- F6. Payments made by a third-party payment will be refunded to the third-party.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

Section G: Fee Credits

- G1. The standard Fee Credit is 25% of the fee of the module you have deferred. You will be awarded this if you defer or withdraw after your Module Start Date but before the Final Deferral Date.
- G2. A Fee Credit may be applied to any module which starts within 13 months of your deferred Module's Start Date, or in cases where you intend to study your deferred module again, if the next available Module Start Date is outside the 13 month period of validity. If you have not used your Fee Credit within the period of validity, it will expire, and no Refund will be given. A Fee Credit cannot be applied to the courses/modules listed in paragraph G11.
- G3. Fee Credits are calculated from the fee paid for the deferred module. When you return to study you will be liable to pay any difference in the fee for your new module.
- G4. Fee Credits where a third-party has paid the fees are credited to the Student.
- G5. Deferral with Assessment Banking does not generate any additional Fee Credit.
- G6. A Fee Credit can only be used once after the relevant liability period commences. If you use a Fee Credit together with another payment option for a module and you subsequently withdraw you will not be eligible for a further Fee Credit for that module.
- G7. Fee Credits will not be awarded as a result of the deferral or withdrawal from modules of fewer than 30 credits.
- G8. Fee Credits will not be awarded where the original fee was paid by a waiver or credit issued by The Open University.
- G9. You may apply for consideration of a Discretionary Fee Credit or Refund if you defer your studies due to extenuating personal circumstances and can provide evidence of meeting the conditions specified by The Open University, found in Appendix 2. Further information can be found in Section I 'Discretionary Fee Credits and Refunds'.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

G10. If you have paid your fees (wholly or in part) with a tuition fee loan and you defer or withdraw from your studies, you will not be liable for any fees due to be paid by tuition fee loan after that date and your loan liability will be adjusted as appropriate.

G11. Fee Credits are not permitted for use against Microcredentials or Apprenticeship Programmes.

- You have not incurred fee liability for a module which forms part of an undergraduate qualification for one full seasonal academic year, and you are returning to a different undergraduate qualification.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- You have completed your registered qualification and are not registered on to a top-up qualification (if applicable) in the next seasonal academic year.

Becoming a returning student will lead to a reassessment of your fee status and may also lead to a change in your funding cohort and Nation funding authority.

Seasonal Academic Year

This is calculated from when you first study towards your qualification and ensures that you can access a full year of funding support, regardless of when you begin.

Settled status

You are normally and lawfully resident in the UK by choice without any immigration restriction on the length of your stay. Please note that some non-UK nationals without time limits on their stay are not deemed to be settled in the UK e.g. diplomats, visiting armed forces.

Temporarily absent

Where you are not resident in your normal country of residence for a fixed period of time. A temporary absence from the UK will be reviewed in the context of the duration of the absence, with decisions on whether the absence affects your status as “ordinarily and lawfully resident in the UK” being made on a case-by-case basis. The duration and purpose of the absence will be taken into account but may not be the only factor evaluated.

When deciding if a person leaving is no longer ordinarily resident in a particular place The Open University considers if “they have, for the time being ceased to live there as part of the regular order of life”. The Open University considers and bases our decision on a range of relevant factors to help indicate a person’s residency with the aim of establishing where a person’s “regular order of life” takes place. In making our decision, The Open University will consider, among other things:

- the nature and purpose of the absence, including the nature and purpose of any employment overseas;
- the terms of any contract or employer's letter;

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- the period of time spent abroad;
- the time spent in the UK;
- whether a residence has been maintained in the UK (or as the case may be EEA, Switzerland and Turkey).

The Open University also considers the UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA) definition of ordinary residence which states: “You are ordinarily resident in the relevant residence area if you have been habitually, normally and lawfully resident in that area from choice”.

Transfer of Eligibility

Any change in qualification intention which does not follow a break of one full seasonal academic year. A transfer of eligibility will not affect your fee status or your funding cohort but could, in some circumstances, lead to a change in your funding eligibility.

UK Funding Authority

A Government Agency or equivalent and refers to Student Finance England (SFE), Student Finance Wales (SFW), Student Finance Northern Ireland (SFNI) or the Student Awards Agency for Scotland (SAAS).

Vice-Chancellor’s Delegate

A senior member of staff that the Vice-Chancellor has nominated to make decisions.

Appendix 3 – Accommodation charges for residential schools

- Ap3 1. If you are ordinarily and lawfully resident in England or outside of the UK and liable for the Standard Fee Scheme, and are enrolled on a residential school module or a module which includes an embedded residential school, an additional charge (“the accommodation charge”) is payable for the cost of accommodation and meals provided for those attending that residential school. If you are a Student in Wales, you may be liable to pay this accommodation charge. You will be advised during the registration process whether you are liable to pay the accommodation charge, or will be provided with information as outlined within the Academic Regulations of when this fee may be payable.
- Ap3 2. The accommodation charge is payable except where:
- a) the module fee expressly includes the cost of accommodation and meals at a residential school; or
 - b) Students are required or advised to make independent arrangements for accommodation and meals during their attendance at the residential school for that module; or
 - c) you have expressly notified the Student Support Team that you intend to make independent arrangements for your accommodation and meals during your attendance at the residential school; or
 - d) you will be participating in the Alternative Learning Experience (where available) instead of attending the residential school.
 - e) The residential school is provided by an external provider or third-party to whom direct payments are required.

The amount of the accommodation charge and the details of the accommodation and meals to be provided will be set out on the booking page for the residential school that you are attending. - Ap3 5. If the accommodation charge is not paid by the deadline you will be contacted by phone or email to ask you to confirm whether or not you require accommodation at the residential school you are attending:
- a) If you do require accommodation you must contact us to confirm by the date specified, which will be at least eight weeks before the beginning of the residential school. Payment of the accommodation charge must be made in full at the time of your confirmation.
 - b) If you do not confirm that you require accommodation at the residential school you are attending and do not make payment of the accommodation charge within the time specified, no accommodation or meals will be booked for you at the residential school and it will be assumed that you are making independent arrangements.
 - c) If you have not confirmed that you require accommodation at the residential school you are attending within the time specified but subsequently wish to do so, a limited amount of accommodation may become available from time to time due to cancellations, but this cannot be guaranteed. Any such accommodation will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Payment must be made at the time of allocation and will not be refundable unless Section Ap3 10. applies. You may also be asked to contact the venue directly to make your own arrangements.

- Ap3 8. Any such failure or problems will not excuse non-attendance or non-participation in the residential school. Circumstances that are outside your control which affect your participation in or performance at a residential school may be reported to be taken into account by submitting a form RS39 which is available through StudentHome. For more information, contact the Residential Schools Team.
- Ap3 9. If you defer or withdraw from a residential school module or a module which includes an embedded residential school, Fee Refunds or Credits policy will apply to the tuition fee payable for that module but not to the accommodation charge.

Appendix 4 – Low credit value modules and Tuition fee loans

Ap4 1. This section applies to undergraduate Students studying a qualification that includes a module which has a credit value of less than 30 credits (a 'low credit value module') and who are using a Tuition Fee Loan to pay their tuition fees.

Ap4 2. The rules for Tuition Fee Loans require a minimum of 30 credits to be studied during a SAY in order for the fees to be eligible for a loan. These 30 credits cannot be achieved by 'bundling' low credit value modules. This means that if you wish to use a Tuition Fee Loan to pay the fees for a low credit value module that is part of your qualification you must also be studying at least one other 30 or 60 credit module that is linked to that qualification. You must study this module in the same SAY as the low credit value module and on either the same or an earlier presentation.

Ap4 3. You can only use a Tuition Fee Loan to pay for a low credit value module that is credit bearing and is either:

- a compulsory module in your registered qualification; or
- is eligible to be counted towards your registered qualification.

Ap4 4. If you have changed your registered qualification to the Open Degree after studying a module worth less than 30 credits towards your original qualification, you may enrol for a further low credit value module in order to achieve a total of 30 credits from those modules. If you have changed your registered qualification to any other qualification you will only be able to enrol for low credit value modules that are compulsory in the new qualification.

Version number: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2023	Date for review: March 2024

- Ap4 5. You must be using your Tuition Fee Loan to pay for all or part of the fees of your 30 or 60 credit module and to pay for the whole of the fee for the low credit value module. You cannot use a Tuition Fee Loan as part payment for a low credit value module.
- Ap4 6. If you defer or withdraw from your 30 or 60 credit module before the start date of the low credit value module, so that the credit value of your study for the SAY drops below 30 credits, your enrolment or registration for the low credit value module will be cancelled unless you provide an alternative method of payment in place of the Tuition Fee Loan.
- Ap4 7. If you defer or withdraw from your 30 or 60 credit module after the start date of the low credit value module so that the total credit value of your current study drops below 30 credits you will no longer be eligible for a Tuition Fee Loan for your remaining module and you will become liable to pay the fee yourself using another payment method. (See the Conditions of Registration and the Student Debt Policy for details of what may happen if you do not pay your fees.)
- Ap4 8. If, for any other reason, you cease to be eligible for a Tuition Fee Loan to pay the fees for a low credit value module and you have not cancelled your enrolment or registration for that module before the start date of the module, The Open University (or their agents) reserves the right to claim the module fee from you in line with the Student Debt Policy.
