Summary of Conditions

- The Conditions of Registration set out the terms and conditions (“Conditions”) that apply to registration for undergraduate and postgraduate taught modules and qualifications studied with The Open University.
- These Conditions set out the terms of the agreement between you and The Open University. They also reference other policies, procedures, guidance documents, The Open University regulations and codes of practice listed in Related Documentation. Together, these documents set out the details of your rights and obligations as a student of The Open University.

Summary of significant changes since last version

There are a number of significant changes from the previous version of this document (Conditions of Registration 2021/22). These are:

- a) Professional Development (PD) courses added to the ‘out of scope’ section.
- b) Related documentation list updated to incorporate the Academic Conduct Policy and move Fitness to Study as a document that governs your study.
- c) New Sections added entitled “Commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at the Open University” and “Safe Space Reporting”.
- d) In, ‘Summary of the main terms of the contract between us’ the following amendments are made:
 - a. Clause 3 has been amended to include postage charges for receipt of physical module materials sent to addresses outside of the UK.
 - b. Clause 14 has been amended to include a voluntary or imposed study break in accordance with the Fitness to Study Policy; failure to meet any academic or administrative requirements shown in the module or qualification description, or within any related supplementary agreement; breaking of any conditions set out in this or any supplementary document; and failure to disclose any unspent legal restrictions or conditions that are specified within the Conditions of Registration in line with the Code of Practice for Student Discipline.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- e) Section A2 “Additional condition for disclosure of legal restrictions and conditions” has been amended to the latest advice regarding the requirement to disclose unspent criminal convictions at the point of registering to study at The Open University (A2.1); students who are currently, or become subject to a Her Majesty’s Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS, or other criminal justice agency) licence, Court Imposed Order or similar relevant condition/restriction imposed by a court or by an authorised body (A2.2); information regarding disclosure of ‘spent’ convictions (A2.4); consequences of non-disclosure (A2.5); and specific requirements for module(s) linked to a particular profession, with additional criteria governed by professional, statutory, and regulatory bodies (PSRBs: A2.6).
- f) Clauses A6.1, D2.2 and D3.2(a) amended to include references to being a registered and current Open University Student.
- g) Clause A6.4 amended to add a reference to the Gender Identity Policy and Guidance.
- h) Within A7.3, removal of sub-clause a)i which referenced the suspension or cancellation of registrations and enrolments where either too few or too many Students have registered or enrolled for the module to enable The Open University to provide an appropriate learning experience and/or assessment opportunity in order to meet the learning outcomes of the module and/or accreditation requirements. Subsequent renumbering of section.
- i) Clarification within clause A7.6.3 to describe administration of a waiting list.
- j) Addition of clause A7.7.6 to describe teach out arrangements where accreditation or validation of a qualification is withdrawn or not renewed.
- k) Addition of clause A9.2 to describe the complaints procedure for Welsh Language Standards.
- l) Amendments to Section A10 “Student Discipline” to reference Academic Conduct.
- m) Additional clarification within Clause B1.3 to reference examination centres.
- n) Amendment to clause B1.5 to include the Republic of Ireland.
- o) Amendment to clause B1.6 to add ‘Amazon Career Choice Programme voucher (UK residents only)’ as an acceptable payment method.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- p) Clause C3.1 amended to describe learning outcomes which are available on your module description or website.
- q) References to Alternative Learning Experiences changed to 'online schools' in clauses C3.2-C3.4, and the Glossary.
- r) Amendment to clause C3.5 to refer to a 6-month standard visitor visa.
- s) Addition of two new sub-clauses: E2.1 j) regarding failure to disclose legal restrictions under Section A2, and E2.1 k) regarding registration for a qualification lapsing. Addition of reference to carrying out a fraudulent action.
- t) Addition of new Section F4 "The Computing Policy and Social Media Policy".
- u) Amendment to Section G3 to reference removal of access to StudentHome if registration status has lapsed.
- v) Addition of new section J, "Affiliation with third party organisations".
- w) Glossary updated: Reference to 'Case Conference Panel', 'Course', 'Integrated Master's Degree', 'Lapse in Registration', 'Online school', 'Registration Agreement'.
- x) Amendments to 'Further clarification' section.
- y) Amendment to Appendix Ap 1.1 to describe the process of disclosure of an unspent conviction and to include two new offences.

Conditions of Registration superseded by this document

This document replaces the previous version of Conditions of Registration 2021/22.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Scope

What this document covers

These Conditions of Registration apply to Students who register for undergraduate and taught postgraduate modules and qualifications, and set out the terms of the agreement between you and The Open University, including your rights and obligations as a Student.

These Conditions apply to your study of modules which start in the academic year 2022/23 (which runs from 1 August 2022 to 31 July 2023) and to any qualification that these modules may be studied towards.

For a module which started before 1 August 2022 or is due to start after 31 July 2023 you should refer to the Conditions of Registration for the relevant academic year.

Students studying The Open University's Pre-Registration Nursing programme, The Open University's Social Work programme, or the PGCE in Wales should also refer to their respective Conditions of Registration: Supplementary Agreements as follows:

- Students studying on The Open University's Pre-Registration Nursing programme: Conditions of Registration: Supplementary Agreement \(Nursing\).
- Students studying The Open University's Social Work programme: Conditions of Registration: Supplementary Agreement \(Social Work\).
- Students studying for a PGCE in Wales: Conditions of Registration: Supplementary Agreement for PGCE Students Postgraduate Certificate in Education \(Wales\).

This document may be updated throughout the year to correct errors, improve clarity or accessibility, or to reflect changes in legal or regulatory requirements. If these amendments occur after you have registered, you will be notified by email of any significant changes to this document.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

What this document does not cover

These Conditions do not apply to the following:

- a) Postgraduate Research Students (PGR programmes). Please refer to the Conditions of Registration for Postgraduate Research Students.
- b) Those studying free courses on OpenLearn or FutureLearn.
- c) Those studying Short Courses. Please refer to the Conditions of Registration \(Short Courses\).
- d) Those studying a Microcredential. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions \(Microcredentials\).
- e) Those studying an Apprenticeship. Please refer to the Conditions of Registration \(Apprentices\).
- f) Those studying a Vocational Qualification. Please refer to the Conditions of Registration \(Vocational Qualifications\).
- g) Those studying Professional Development (PD) courses. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions \(Professional Development courses\).

PGCE study in Wales

If you are studying for a PGCE qualification in Wales, the following sections within these Conditions of Registration are not applicable, and you should refer to the Conditions within the Conditions of Registration: Supplementary Agreement for PGCE Students Postgraduate Certificate in Education \(Wales\).

Summary of the main terms of the contract between us

- Points 9 and 11 do not apply

A: Your agreement

- A1.d) the "Policy for the admission of applicants under the age of 18" does not apply as the programme will not admit anyone under 18.
- A2 is superseded by Clause 2.1 of the PGCE Supplementary Agreement

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

B: Your fees

- Superseded by Section 5 of the PGCE Supplementary Agreement

E: Ending your registration

- E1 is superseded by Section 7 of the PGCE Supplementary Agreement

The Open University Student Charter Values

This document aligns specifically with the following Open University Student Charter Values:

1. We treat each other with courtesy and respect, respecting the rights of individuals to hold different beliefs and views and to express them appropriately.
2. We value diversity and challenge inequalities and we are stronger for doing so.
4. We communicate with each other in ways which are clear, relevant, accurate and timely.
7. We act ethically and transparently, providing and making use of fair and open means to deal with our concerns and grievances, learning from them.
9. As Students, we share the responsibility for learning and make a commitment to study and research using the resources and support services available, upholding the highest standards of academic integrity.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

10. As staff, we each play our role in enabling high-quality learning and advancing knowledge and understanding through research and scholarly activity, ensuring every student is supported.
 11. We work to maintain and enhance the standards and reputation of our University recognising the contributions that all members make to its success.

Commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at The Open University

Policies are inclusive of all Open University Students, Learners, Enquirers and Alumni, regardless of age, civil status, dependency or caring status, care experience, disability, family status, gender, gender identity, gender reassignment, marital status, marriage and civil partnerships, membership of the Traveller community, political opinion, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, socio-economic background, sex, sexual orientation or trades union membership status.

Safe Space Reporting

The Open University is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive environment in which everyone feels safe and is treated with dignity and respect. Unlawful discrimination of any kind across The Open University will not be tolerated. Safe Space Reporting is available through an online tool through which staff, students, learners and visitors are encouraged to report incidents of assault, bullying, harassment, hate crime, or sexual harassment. It also provides information about what you can do if these incidents happen to you, or to someone you know, and where you can find support.

Introduction

About these Conditions of Registration

These Conditions of Registration and the Registration Agreement set out the terms of the agreement between you and The Open University. They also reference other policies, procedures, guidance documents, The Open University regulations and codes of practice listed in Related Documentation. Together, these documents set out the details of your rights and obligations as a Student of The Open University.

When you register to study with The Open University you are entering into a legal agreement with us which places legally binding obligations on each of us.

You should make sure that you understand what is expected of you and what you can expect from us. If there is anything in the Registration Agreement, in these Conditions, or in any of the documents that are referred to that you do not understand, or that you wish to discuss, please contact us before you complete your registration. You should also check the Registration Agreement carefully before you submit it to make sure that all of the details are correct.

Should any details in the Registration Agreement be incorrect:

- If you are registering online you can go back and change them.
- If you are registering by telephone, please ensure that our advisor is given the correct details and has confirmed them to you.
- If you have a printed registration form do not alter it or sign it. Please contact us to tell us what changes you want to make and we will send you a new Registration Agreement.

Summary of the main terms of the contract between us

This section sets out a brief summary of the main terms of your contract to study with The Open University. The full terms are set out throughout this document and in the other policy and regulatory documents referred to within this document.

1. This is a legally binding agreement between you and The Open University, to study an Open University module or an Open University qualification.
 - a) You have a statutory right to cancel your Registration Agreement with The Open University within 14 calendar days of the date of the letter/email confirming the agreement.
 - b) If you withdraw your registration more than 14 calendar days after the date of that letter or email, you may still do so but you may, in certain circumstances, remain liable to pay fees.
2. You agree to pay tuition fees for your module or qualification. If you do not pay your fees, The Open University can end this agreement and/or can take legal action to recover unpaid fees from you, in line with our Student Debt Policy.
3. There may be additional costs of study (for example, transport to an examination centre, postage charges for receipt of physical module materials sent to addresses outside of the UK) and other charges (for example, the accommodation fee for a residential school) which you will have to pay in order to complete your studies successfully. These are outlined in the module description on our online prospectus.
4. We will use your personal information to maintain your student record, to provide support for your studies and for other facilities. Please see the Student Privacy Notice \(and Supplementary Privacy Notices\) if relevant to your circumstance) for more information. We will only share your information with others in accordance with our Student Privacy Notices.
5. We will provide you with teaching and assessment materials and learning support which are described in the module description in our online prospectus.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

6. You agree to study the module or qualification, make reasonable use of the support provided and to carry out the assessment activities as required for that module or qualification.
7. There is no guarantee of academic success. The Open University will use its academic judgement to decide whether you have met the learning outcomes for the module that you are studying. If you do, you will be awarded credit that can be used to count towards Open University qualifications.
8. In order to pass a module you may need to submit and pass a number of tasks, which could include a written exam. In some circumstances you may be given an opportunity to resit the exam or resubmit the final task if you do not pass the module first time, but your result will normally be capped at the lowest grade of pass. Contact your Student Support Team for more information about any fees payable. Further information is available in the Academic Regulations.
9. If you are studying for a qualification you may need to enrol for, study and pass further modules to achieve that qualification. A further fee is payable for each module that you study. The level of fees may change as set out in the Fee Rules. If you do not achieve the qualification, you will not be entitled to a refund of fees for the modules you have studied.
10. If you are studying for a qualification that you have registered for or declared, The Open University will make modules available to enable you to achieve that qualification. There is no guarantee that all modules that are available at the time of your registration will remain available and we may, in certain circumstances, make changes to or withdraw curriculum, or restrict the number of places available to study a module at a particular start date. If we do, we will give you notice and a reasonable opportunity to complete the qualification, as per our Student Protection Plan.
11. If you wish to change the module(s) that you are studying or the qualification that you are studying towards, you may do so by following the rules in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

12. The Open University can apply conditions to your study or cancel your registration if it is reasonably necessary to do so for reasons of health, safety and welfare of yourself or others, or to comply with statutory responsibilities.
13. There may be some exceptional circumstances in which we are unable to provide the module that you have registered or enrolled for, but we will provide you with advice and guidance and a reasonable alternative.
14. The University can end this agreement if:
 - a) You have provided us with false or misleading information or you do not keep your personal information up to date.
 - b) You have not done something you were required to do as a condition of your registration (for example, to pass a previous module, to obtain a work placement, or where you are already registered, you have not returned the requested evidence or the evidence you returned did not successfully meet the specified entry requirements).
 - c) You do not pay your tuition fees or are in debt to The Open University in respect of tuition fees or other academic charges.
 - d) You are found to have committed a serious breach of the Code of Practice for Student Discipline or any breach of restrictions placed on your access to study; or due to a voluntary or imposed study break in accordance with the Fitness to Study Policy.
 - e) You fail to meet any academic or administrative requirements shown in the module or qualification description, or within any related supplementary agreement.
 - f) You break any of the conditions set out in this document (and any of the other rules and regulations referred to in it) or in any supplementary agreement.
 - g) You fail to disclose any unspent legal restrictions or conditions that are specified within the Conditions of Registration in line with the Code of Practice for Student Discipline.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

15. You will be given an Open University computing account, which you must use responsibly and in accordance with the Student Computing Policy.
16. You must provide us with your contact details and keep them up to date.
17. We will communicate with you by email, through StudentHome and other Open University websites. It is your responsibility to check for messages regularly.

Section A: Your agreement to register as a Student

A1. The terms of the agreement

When The Open University formally accepts in writing, by letter or email, your application to register to study with The Open University, you as the Student and The Open University are entering into a legal agreement with each other.

- a) These Conditions of Registration and the registration agreement set out the terms of the agreement between you and The Open University. They incorporate and are subject to the rules, regulations, policies and procedures which are made under the Charter and Statutes of The Open University and which are referred to in this document. Together, they set out the rights and responsibilities of both parties which will apply while you are a registered Student.
- b) In addition, if you are registering for a qualification to which vocational requirements apply, you may also be required to enter into a supplementary agreement with The Open University. Any such agreement will form part of these Conditions and must be read in conjunction with them. In some circumstances, you will also be required to enter into a separate agreement with an employer, placement provider, professional body or other relevant third-party.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- c) In addition, if you are registering for a qualification or module which is offered under a partnership agreement between The Open University and another educational institution ('your Local Education Centre'), some of the services and facilities provided to you under this agreement may be provided to you by the Local Education Centre on behalf of The Open University and not all services or facilities may be available. The fee arrangements may also vary, but you will be told separately about the specific arrangements that will apply to you. You may also be required to enter into a supplementary agreement with The Open University and/or the Local Education Centre. Any agreement made under this provision with The Open University will form part of these Conditions and must be read in conjunction with them.
- d) In addition, if you will be under the age of 18 on the start date of any module for which you are enrolling or registering, you will only be accepted as a Student if you are permitted to study in accordance with the Policy for the admission of applicants under the age of 18. Your registration or enrolment will be subject to any specific arrangements in connection with the proposed study which were taken into account in giving permission to study and to any additional terms or conditions required under Section A3 \(Additional conditions to comply with statutory responsibilities\) below.
- e) The Registration Agreement, the Conditions and the rules, regulations, policies and procedures which form part of it, and any supplementary agreement required under Clause A1b), A1c) or A1d) contain the entire agreement between us. If, at any time, any Open University employees or agents have said anything inconsistent with these Conditions, the Conditions of Registration will take priority, unless formally agreed in writing by The Open University.
- f) The Open University Senate may change rules, regulations, policies and procedures in the circumstances set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\). The Senate gives reasonable notice of changes to the regulations and rules, and the date they take effect. You will be informed of any such changes as set out in Section B of the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\) and these Conditions will incorporate and be subject to changes that take effect during the period for which these Conditions apply.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- g) It is your responsibility as a Student to ensure that the qualification or module you are registering to study is recognised by the appropriate professional body or employer and/or country within which you intend to utilise that study. In particular, it is your responsibility as a Student to ensure that qualifications studied via distance learning are recognised.
- h) These Conditions, the Registration Agreement, and The Open University rules, regulations, policies and procedures referred to herein shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and all disputes arising from these documents or in relation to them shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

A2. Additional condition for disclosure of legal restrictions and conditions

A2.1 Students who have an unspent criminal conviction (as listed within Appendix Ap1.1), are required to disclose this unspent conviction at the point of registering to study at The Open University. Disclosure of an unspent conviction will not result in an automatic cancellation of registration or exclusion from the University; however this may mean that The Open University is unable to accommodate your study, or that we need to place specific conditions or restrictions on study, for example exclusion from University face to face events and/or online activity. If you are unsure of whether your criminal conviction is spent, please contact the Community Support Team, Students in Secure Environments.

The nature of the offence and all relevant information pertaining to the conviction will be considered in order to determine whether The Open University considers there to be any risk of harm to the wider University community and/or make adjustments to the course of study that mitigate risks for both the Student and The Open University community. This assessment will be undertaken in accordance with The Open University's Community Support Framework, which considers our responsibilities to the University community of staff and students and to events where we engage with the wider general public. Further information on criminal convictions is available from the Community Support Team, Students in Secure Environments.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- A2.2 Students who are currently, or become subject to a Her Majesty’s Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS, or other criminal justice agency) licence, Court Imposed Order or similar relevant condition/restriction imposed by a court or Criminal Justice Agency must also make The Open University aware immediately of any conditions which may prevent them from fully engaging with their course and the wider University community. Any disclosure will be managed by The Open University Students in Secure Environments Team (SiSE). This disclosure helps the SiSE Team support Students in complying with any conditions while studying with The Open University and fulfils our safeguarding obligations. This includes those subject to Sex Offender Registration and Sexual Harm Prevention Orders (in the United Kingdom; or equivalent Orders for outside of the United Kingdom).
- A2.3 In circumstances where legal restrictions and conditions make a Student’s first choice of course impractical, The Open University will undertake to make reasonable adjustments and suggest alternative programmes of study where available.
- A2.4 Students applying to The Open University are not required to disclose a conviction which is ‘spent’ unless Clause A2.6 applies. An applicant who is unsure whether their conviction is ‘unspent’ and therefore needs to be disclosed can seek advice from The Community Support Team, Students in Secure Environments.
- A2.5 Failure to disclose information regarding relevant unspent criminal convictions that you are currently subject to or become subject to during your studies may involve an investigation which will consider disciplinary procedures and may be deemed a disciplinary offence in line with these Conditions of Registration (see Section A10: Student Discipline and Academic Misconduct; and Appendix AP2.1: Failure to disclose legal restrictions and conditions), and the Code of Practice for Student Discipline (see Sections SD1.4c and SD1.3b). Any failure to disclose may therefore have an impact on your continued study with The Open University (see Section E2: The Open University’s right to cancel your registration or enrolment).

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- A2.6 If you are applying to study a module linked to a particular profession, there may be additional criteria governed by professional, statutory, and regulatory bodies (PSRBs) with regards to criminal convictions (as listed within Appendix Ap1.1), including some which are spent. Such professional programmes will require a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check as a condition of offer. Students accepting an offer on those programmes are not required to make a self-disclosure, as any adverse information disclosed by the DBS will be considered in accordance with the requirements and policy for the programme for which the DBS check is required.
- A2.7 The Open University provides services to give specialist advice and support to Students entering our student community from many different walks of life. Students coming to The Open University with a spent or unspent conviction may find it useful to connect with these services and gain additional support as part of their study with us. Any disclosure to use a service (e.g., careers advice) is dealt with confidentially, and you will only be asked for the information relevant to the service you require. If appropriate, a referral will be made to our Community Support Team, who will be able to provide further guidance and support if your disclosure impacts on your study.

For further guidance on disclosure please refer to the Appendix, our Supporting Students in Secure Environments web pages or contact Community Support, Students in Secure Environments.

A3. Additional conditions to comply with statutory responsibilities

- A3.1 The Open University may impose conditions or vary the terms on which you study and/or access services and facilities. Action may be taken if, in the opinion of The Open University, it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to comply with its duties to protect the health and safety of Students, staff, contractors and members of the public.
- A3.2 Conditions may be imposed or terms may be varied by The Open University in order to meet its duties with respect to the safeguarding of young persons or vulnerable and protected adults, or in order to comply with its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 in England, Scotland and Wales; the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 for Northern Ireland; or any other statutory duty or obligation.

- A3.3 In order to fulfil The Open University’s Safeguarding duty (in line with the Safeguarding Policy and Clause G6 below), Open University employees or agents have a statutory obligation to disclose relevant information to the internal Safeguarding team or external parties (for example, Child and Adult Protection Services, or the emergency services).
- A3.4 In order to fulfil The Open University’s Prevent duty (in line with The Open University Prevent Principles and Clause G7 below), Open University employees, Students or agents have a statutory obligation to report concerns that an Open University staff member or Student is at risk of being drawn into terrorism to The Open University Prevent team for investigation.

A4. Registration

- A4.1 The Registration Agreement will come into force when The Open University confirms formally (by letter or by email) that they have accepted your application to register.
- A4.2 Your application to register as a Student of The Open University is subject to you satisfying to The Open University of the following:
- a) you have met the general requirements for registration set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\);
 - b) you have met any specific requirements for registration or enrolment for any module as set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\);
 - c) if applicable, you have met any requirements for registration for a qualification set out in the specific regulations governing your qualification;
 - d) if applicable, you have entered into a supplementary agreement as required under Clause A1b) or A1c) above;
 - e) if applicable, you disclose any legal restrictions or conditions under Section A2 above;
 - f) you have paid the relevant fee or provided an approved payment method;

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- g) unless exceptional permission has been obtained, the module and/or qualification is available for study in the country in which you are resident;
- h) you have met any additional residence requirements or provided required evidence as detailed within Section A5; and
- i) if you are under 18, you are accepted to study under the Policy for the admission of applicants under the age of 18.

A5. Residence requirements

A5.1 The Open University is only able to sponsor a Student visa for research degree Students. This means that The Open University is unable to sponsor your Student visa if you register to study an undergraduate or postgraduate taught module or qualification.

A5.2 If you are currently resident in the UK on a visa, which permits you to study with The Open University, but which only allows a stay in the UK for up to six months, you will only be eligible to:

- a) register on a qualification that is available for study in the country in which you are ordinarily resident;
- b) register or enrol on a module that is available for standalone study within the UK if you will be resident in the UK when the module starts and will be in the UK for at least half the duration of the module;
- c) attend a compulsory face to face residential school, with a duration of a week, where there is no online alternative learning experience available.

If you do not meet these criteria, we reserve the right to restrict your registration or enrolment only to modules that are available in your permanent country of residence.

A5.3 If you are currently resident in the UK on a visa other than a standard visitor visa, and it is due to expire within the next 12 months, we may restrict your registration or enrolment to modules studied on a standalone basis or towards a qualification at a lower level than you originally intended until you have secured a visa that meets our requirements. If you have not previously studied with The Open University, we may not allow you to register until you have secured a visa that meets our requirements.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- A5.4 If you are currently resident in the UK on any type of visa or you are an asylum seeker with restrictions on the length of your stay within the UK, you may be required to supply additional evidence, as required by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) before you are able to study certain subjects. The Open University is required to ensure that all Students studying with us have permission to do so. This means that you may be required to submit additional evidence to verify your status in the UK or ensure you are entitled to visit the UK. If you are unable to provide evidence which verifies your status, The Open University may be unable to accept your registration on to your chosen module(s) or be unable to permit you to attend face to face study events. If you have been allowed to register and you are unable to supply the necessary evidence, your registration may be cancelled, and any fees refunded.
- A5.5 If you are not resident in the UK you may only register or enrol for a module that is available to study in your country of residence and you may only register for or declare a qualification where there are sufficient modules (including all compulsory modules) available for study in your country of residence to enable you to successfully complete that qualification. If there are any restrictions that are imposed on you by the education authorities within the country where you are resident, you also need to meet these before we can accept your registration on your chosen module or qualification.
- A5.6 When you register, you must provide your home address. If you live outside the UK, you should only give us your work or care of (c/o) address if exceptional permission has been granted to do so. This allows The Open University to accurately assess the curriculum available to you and the fee you are liable to pay, as outlined in our Fee Rules. If you are unsure or would like to seek exceptional permission, please contact your Student Support Team.
- A5.7 If your place of residency is the UK but you are temporarily resident outside the UK, you must give an address in the UK for delivery of your study materials and arrange for them to be forwarded at your own cost. If you wish to use a British Forces Post Office address you may also be required to provide an additional address for delivery of materials; please contact your Student Support Team for details.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- A5.8 The following Condition only applies to individuals planning to study with The Open University when resident (temporarily or permanently) outside of the UK and Ireland. To be able to engage with your studies, The Open University provides access to study materials and learning events via various digital services. To obtain these, you will need to sign in to your student account. In the majority of cases, the ability to sign in to your student account and use all digital services will be fully accessible. However, in a small number of geographical locations (please see The Open University guidance “Help with signing in to OU systems”), access may be restricted or not be permissible without use of a VPN (Virtual Private Network). If you are planning on studying with The Open University from outside the UK and Ireland, please see The Open University guidance “Help with signing in to OU systems” for information on current restrictions. If you are unsure how this will affect you or you would like to seek advice, please contact your Student Support Team.
- A5.9 The Open University is not responsible for which VPN provider you opt to use to sign in to your student account. It is your responsibility to ensure the VPN provider you use is compatible with the location you are in or intend to travel to. It is also your responsibility to ensure you are aware of any legal requirements or restrictions in the location you choose to study in when using VPN to access your studies.
- A5.10 If you are unable to access your course via a VPN because of restrictions in your place of residency, then you will be offered a full or partial refund. This is limited to locations where VPN access is either prohibited or restricted by law. If you are unsure how this will affect your studies, please contact your Student Support Team.
- A5.11 If there are VPN providers available in your place of residency (albeit with a limited service), it is your responsibility to ensure that you make use of these VPN providers when studying. If you are unsure how this will affect your studies, please contact your Student Support Team.
- A5.12 A refund will not be provided in the event of any technical issues that may arise with your VPN.
- A5.13 If you are travelling and choose to study in another location, it is your responsibility to ensure you can access your study materials online by arranging to have access via a suitable VPN provider, or you download materials prior to travelling. If you are unsure how this will affect your studies, please contact your Student Support Team.

A6. Personal information

- A6.1 The personal information which we have collected from you is shown in the profile section of your StudentHome website (whilst you are a registered and current Open University Student). We also keep records of your contact with us and your participation in learning activities.
- A6.2 When you register to study with The Open University, the personal information that you have supplied will be used and processed in accordance with the Student Privacy Notice (and Supplementary Privacy Notices if relevant). This may include using your personal information, together with the records we will keep of your participation in learning activities, to provide support to you in your studies.
- A6.3 We use the information we hold in our records to process your registration, to keep in touch with you, to support you in your studies and to provide services and facilities, so it is important that it is correct. It is your responsibility to keep your personal information up to date and to notify us of any changes or errors. You must notify us within a reasonable time if you change your name, the country where you are resident or ordinarily resident, or any of your contact details. If you do not notify us of any changes or errors to your personal information (such as the country where you are resident or ordinarily resident) this may impact upon your ability to continue studying with The Open University in line with Clause E2.1\(a\). Details of how you may change any of your personal information are set out on StudentHome. We may require you to provide satisfactory evidence of any change before our records will be updated. Further details of when evidence may be required and what evidence will be accepted are also included in the information on StudentHome.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A6.4 If you are awarded any qualification of The Open University, any certificate in respect of that qualification will be issued in the name that we hold in our records at the point when your qualification is conferred. A certificate will not be amended or reissued in a different name if a change of name is notified after the date your qualification is conferred except in the case of an error by The Open University in recording your personal details or if a valid request is made under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 in conjunction with the Gender Identity Policy and Guidance, or if an application for a change of name on public safety grounds has been approved by The Open University. Any duplicate certificate issued will be in the same name as the original certificate (unless amended as above), even if a change of name may subsequently have been notified.

A7. Our right to make changes

A7.1 The Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\) set out the circumstances in which The Open University may make changes to regulations, rules, curriculum or qualifications. The Open University's Student Protection Plan outlines the reasonable measures we will take to support continuation of your study should we make changes to or withdraw modules, qualifications, study routes or whole disciplines, or there are changes to circumstances which affect your study. The following paragraphs outline the circumstances in which The Open University may make changes to these terms or our educational services.

A7.2 Circumstances outside our control

The Open University will take all reasonable steps to provide the educational services that you have registered or enrolled to receive. There may be circumstances outside of our control where we are unable to provide those services in full or in part for reasons such as fire, flood, pandemic, terrorist acts or industrial disputes. Where those, or similar circumstances arise we will minimise disruption so far as we are reasonably able to and, wherever practicable, will provide you with reasonable alternative arrangements to continue with your studies.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A7.3 Maintenance of academic standards

- a) The Open University may suspend or cancel registrations and enrolments for a module where it is unable to guarantee academic standards at the start date of the module:
- i. in the case of the first presentation of a module only, where notice has been given during the registration process that the module is under development or subject to accreditation or validation, and The Open University is unable to guarantee that the appropriate academic standards will be met or that any relevant accreditation or validation will be secured by the time the module starts; or
 - ii. for any other module, there has been an unforeseen development in the subject area, teaching or assessment methods since registration opened for that academic year that requires significant change in order to maintain the currency or academic standards of the module or the academic reputation of The Open University, that The Open University is not reasonably able to make before it starts; or
 - iii. there has been an unforeseen withdrawal of accreditation or validation for a module since registration opened for that academic year that The Open University is unable to resolve before the module starts.
- b) The Open University will make all reasonable efforts to inform you of any such changes as early as possible and to provide reasonable alternative arrangements wherever practicable to do so.

A7.4 Short-term changes to learning, teaching and assessment arrangements

The Open University may have to postpone, re-locate, re-structure or cancel tutorials, forums, day schools, residential schools and other teaching sessions, assessments or examinations due to the occurrence of an event or circumstance beyond its reasonable control including, but not limited to, industrial action, whether on the part of The Open University's staff or otherwise, short notice absence of teaching or other staff, or short notice unavailability of premises, facilities or materials. The Open University will make all reasonable efforts to inform you of any such changes as early as possible and to provide reasonable alternative arrangements wherever practicable to do so.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A7.5 Changes to Modules

- A7.5.1 The Open University will not normally make changes to a module for Students who are enrolled or registered on that module.
- A7.5.2 A change to a module on which you are enrolled or registered will normally only be made if the change is required immediately in order to correct a significant error or omission, as the result of a legal or regulatory requirement or in order to meet the requirements of a validating or accrediting body.
- A7.5.3 Where a change is made to a module on which you are enrolled or registered you will be given as much notice as possible of the change and, if there is any detriment to you as a result of the change, you will be given the opportunity to withdraw from that module without penalty.
- A7.5.4 Modules on which Students are not yet enrolled or registered may be changed or withdrawn at short notice.

A7.6 Limiting places available for registration

- A7.6.1 There may be occasions where we need to restrict the number of places available to study a module at a particular start date. This may be as a result of a number of factors such as limited tutor availability or limited availability of study resources.
- A7.6.2 We will endeavour to resolve issues to enable all interested Students to study, however where this is not possible, Students may be asked to consider studying an alternative module or at an alternative start date.
- A7.6.3 Where the maximum capacity is reached before the final enrolment date, we will administer a waiting list and re-allocate places as and when they become available. Places will be allocated according to criteria determined by The Open University, which will be applied on a case-by-case basis at The Open University's discretion. The University will consider how much study you have left to complete your qualification, alternative module options you may have available to study and any time limits on completing your qualification. Students placed on a waiting list will be given as much notice as possible to decide their alternative study options should these be required.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A7.6.4 Where you have been placed onto a waiting list, there is no guarantee that you will be able to continue to study modules in your chosen study order, or at your intended study intensity.

A7.7 Changes to Qualifications

A7.7.1 The Open University continually seeks to enhance its Students' experience and ensure that courses remain valid, relevant and current. The modules that are made available in future will reflect those aims and may therefore not include the same subject content, teaching or assessment methods as the modules available at the commencement of your qualification. Modules on which Students are not yet registered or enrolled may also be amended in line with any of the circumstances referred to in Clause A7.2.

A7.7.2 In line with this aim and in any of the circumstances referred to in Clause A7.2, The Open University may make changes to the structure of its qualifications. These may include such matters as the balance between core options and free choice modules, the balance between coursework and examination or other forms and types of assessment, the order of study and rules for progression through the qualification, or the requirements for attendance at or participation in specified learning activities.

A7.7.3 You will be given the option to continue your studies under the new structure or to carry on under the original structure, subject to the teach-out arrangements set out in any notice given.

A7.7.4 The notice period provided may be reduced if it is necessary to comply with the requirements of a professional, statutory or regulatory body or of any other body that accredits or validates the qualification.

A7.7.5 If you are unable to complete your qualification within the notice period you will be able to obtain advice and guidance to help you move to a similar qualification under the new structure, to a related qualification or, if you are an undergraduate Student, to a qualification under The Open Programme.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A7.7.6 Where a professional, statutory or regulatory body or any other body accredits or validates your qualification, you will be awarded that qualification with accreditation if you have been awarded all of the required credit. In the unlikely event that accreditation is withdrawn or is not renewed before you complete your studies, you will be contacted with your options for qualification completion and the Student Protection Plan will apply.

A7.8 Withdrawal of Qualifications

A7.8.1 The circumstances in which The Open University may withdraw qualifications are set out within Section B of the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\), “Changes to regulations and curriculum”. If you are registered for, or have declared the intention to complete a qualification and The Open University has approved the withdrawal of that qualification, you will be given notice of the withdrawal and a reasonable opportunity to complete your study for it before it is withdrawn, subject to the continued availability of the required modules. If the period for withdrawal is shorter than the qualification time limit, then the withdrawal date will override the qualification time limit.

A7.8.2 Except in the circumstances set out below, the minimum period of notice that you will be given will be sufficient for you to complete the qualification at a study intensity of half of the full-time equivalent rate assuming that you do not defer or fail any module or take any study break.

A7.8.3 The notice period set out above may be reduced if it is necessary to comply with the requirements of a professional, statutory or regulatory body or of any other body that accredits or validates the qualification for the change to be made in a shorter period of time.

A7.8.4 If you are unable to complete your qualification within the notice period you will be able to obtain advice and guidance to help you move to a related qualification, including an equivalent qualification under the Open Programme.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- A7.8.5 You will normally be permitted to complete your qualification up to 12 months after the published withdrawal date if you are awarded credit as a result of:
- i. a resit or resubmission of your final module(s)
 - ii. if your final module does not permit resit/resubmissions, completion of a retake, taken at the next available opportunity and completed within 12 months.

A8. Your cancellation rights

- A8.1 Under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, you have a right to cancel your registration to study a module and/or qualification, without giving any reason, within 14 calendar days of the date of the email or letter confirming The Open University's acceptance of your application to register. You will receive a full refund of any fees you have paid or a waiver of any fees you are liable to pay for that module.
- A8.2 If you wish to withdraw from this agreement, or make other changes to your study more than 14 calendar days after the date of the email or letter confirming The Open University's acceptance of your application to register, you must follow the instructions in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy. Your eligibility for a fee refund or a fee credit is set out in the Fee Rules.
- A8.3 Further information about cancelling or ending your registration or enrolment, including the actions you must take to do so, can be found in Section E.

A9. Complaints and appeals

- A9.1 The Open University has a Student Complaints and Appeals Procedure and is a member of the Scheme of Independent Adjudication for Higher Education established by the Higher Education Act 2004.
- A9.2 The Open University also has a specific complaints procedure for complaints relating to Welsh Language Standards. Details on this procedure are available in the document "Welsh Language Standards – Dealing with Complaints and Comments".

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

A10. Student discipline and Academic Misconduct

- A10.1 The Open University has a Code of Practice for Student Discipline. When you register to study with The Open University you agree to be bound by this Code.
- A10.2 When you register to study with The Open University, you agree to comply with the Academic Conduct Policy.

A11. Fitness to Study

The Open University has a Fitness to Study Policy to support you if a mental, emotional or physical disability impacts on your ability to study, on other's ability to study, or on the teaching and administrative processes of The Open University. When you register to study with The Open University you agree to engage with this Policy if requested to by The Open University.

A12. Fitness to Practise

- A12.1 The Open University has a Fitness to Practise Procedure which should be followed where a professional programme offered by The Open University is governed by a Professional, Statutory or Regulatory Body (PSRB) that requires The Open University to declare that a Student is not only academically qualified to practise, but also suitable or fit to practise in that profession.
- A12.2 When you register to study with The Open University for a professional programme you agree to abide by the relevant code of practice or ethics for your professional programme as detailed in the Fitness to Practise Procedure. Failure to do so may result in this procedure being followed and can lead to either the relevant regulatory body withdrawing your registration as a Student, or The Open University not recommending you for registration.

Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section B: Your fees

B1. Your agreement to pay tuition fees and other charges

- B1.1 When you register as a Student of The Open University you agree that you will pay the tuition fees and other charges that are due in respect of your studies. The tuition fee you agree to pay is shown in the registration agreement or registration confirmation. By applying to study at The Open University and agreeing to these Conditions, you also expressly agree to pay any additional charges that may be due to The Open University in respect of your studies that are not covered by the tuition fees, as set out below. You will be provided with information about those additional charges, when they are due and how they may be paid, before you register. Contact your Student Support Team for more information about any additional charges.
- B1.2 The tuition fee covers the tuition, materials (excluding set books) and assessment for the module(s). Please note that if you are required to purchase set books relevant to your studies, these do not need to be purchased from The Open University.
- B1.3 You may be required to pay an additional fee for an examination that is taken at a non-established examination centre, in accordance with the circumstances set out in the Fee Rules. This is because there may be circumstances where we are unable to arrange exams to be taken at an examination centre in countries affected by social unrest or conflict. In these circumstances, Students may be expected to travel to a neighbouring country to complete their exam at an agreed examination centre.
- B1.4 If your module includes a residential school, the tuition fee may not cover the costs of accommodation, meals, travel, or other facilities provided in connection with attendance at that residential school, whether they are provided by The Open University or otherwise, unless otherwise stated in the module description in our printed or online prospectus. Appendix 3 to the Fee Rules explains the circumstances in which this charge is applicable, how and when it should be paid, and what will happen if you fail to pay this charge or withdraw your registration on the associated module.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

B1.5 There may be extra costs in addition to the tuition fee, such as a laptop, internet access, travel to tutorials, set books, and additional postage costs for module materials sent to addresses outside of the UK. If you have requested your study materials to be delivered to an address in the Republic of Ireland or Continental Europe, you may be required to cover additional postal costs (such as VAT and customs charges) in order to receive your physical study materials. If you are on a low income you might be eligible for help with some of these costs after you start studying. Please contact Student Support Team for further information.

B1.6 Payment of or arrangement to pay your fees must be in place by the Final Enrolment Date for your module. The payment methods accepted by The Open University, depending on personal circumstances and eligibility, are:

- Credit/Debit Card
- Government funding (including loans and grants)
- Sponsorship
- Third-party payment by credit/debit card
- Payment in instalments via a loan through Open University Student Budget Accounts Limited (OUSBA)
- Bank Transfer
- Personal cheque/Postal Order
- Enhanced Learning Credits
- Amazon Career Choice Programme voucher (UK residents only).

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

B2. Your liability for fees

- B2.1 When you register to study with The Open University you agree to pay the whole of the fee set out in the registration agreement or registration confirmation (see Section B3, “How we calculate your fees” below for details of the information we use to calculate your fees).
- B2.2 You are normally required to have paid or secured an agreement to pay your fees by a payment method approved by us before we will accept your registration. However, The Open University may, at its discretion, accept your registration before your approved payment method such as a government grant, an undergraduate Student tuition fee loan or payment by a sponsor has been secured. The exercise of this discretion will be conditional upon you having taken and/or agreeing to take all reasonable steps (as the case may be) to secure that payment method within a reasonable time. If you have not secured that payment within the reasonable time The Open University has specified, The Open University may cancel your registration as set out in Section E2 “The Open University’s right to cancel your registration or enrolment”. You will be notified in advance if this is the case.
- B2.3 If you are intending to pay your fees using an Enhanced Learning Credit, you will be personally liable to pay those fees once they have become due even if you have not obtained the Enhanced Learning Credit by that date.
- B2.4 We will only accept Claim Authorisation Notes (CAN) where the module fees quoted are for your chosen presentation start date and the fees for the relevant academic year have been approved by The Open University and displayed on The Open University online prospectus.
- B2.5 If you are paying your fees using a loan via The Open University Student Budget Accounts Limited (OUSBA) you may remain liable to meet scheduled re-payments unless you have cancelled this agreement in circumstances which entitle you to a full fee refund. You must check the terms of your OUSBA agreement and seek advice from OUSBA Ltd if you are not sure.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

B2.6 If you are registering to study a qualification, you only become liable to pay fees as you register for each module. You will not be bound to pay fees in relation to any further modules unless you enrol or register and your application to study those module(s) is accepted. If you do not complete or pass all the modules required to achieve a qualification, you will not be entitled to receive any refund of fees you have paid for previously completed modules.

B3. How we calculate your fees

B3.1 Your fees are calculated in accordance with our Fee Rules, based on the information that you have given us about:

- i) your intended qualification;
- ii) your module choice(s);
- iii) your nationality;
- iv) whether you are ordinarily resident in the UK, the EU/EEA or elsewhere and, if you are ordinarily resident in the UK, whether this is in England, Northern Ireland, Scotland or Wales.

B3.2 You must check that this information is correct before you apply to register. If any information is incorrect do not continue with registration; please go back and correct it.

If we have sent you a printed registration agreement and it is incorrect, do not alter or sign it. Please contact us to give us the correct information and we will send you a new Registration Agreement.

B3.3 The Open University reserves the right to check any information that you have given us and, if the checks show that a different fee should be paid, to recover the difference between the fee shown in the registration agreement and the correct fee if higher. These checks may be made at any time, including after you have begun your study. The Open University may share data with external agencies to check that the correct fee has been paid, to check allocation of funds and for the detection and prevention of crime.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

B4. Failure to pay fees and charges

- B4.1 If you do not pay your fees or do not provide an approved payment method at the time of registration or enrolment, The Open University will not accept your registration or enrolment unless Clause B2.2 or B2.3 above (“Your liability for fees”) applies.
- B4.2 If you are permitted to register or enrol under Clause B2.2 (“Your liability for fees”) and you fail to secure an approved payment method within the reasonable time The Open University has specified, The Open University may cancel your registration or enrolment even if you have started studying. You will be given notice of our intention to cancel your registration or enrolment and a final opportunity to secure the payment or to pay by a different method. If your registration or enrolment is cancelled under this paragraph any part payment of fees you or a sponsor have already made will be refunded and any grant or loan in respect of part payment of fees will be cancelled.
- B4.3 If you are intending to pay your fees with the aid of a means tested award from a UK funding authority but your award does not cover your fees in full, your registration will not be complete until such time as any fee shortfall has been covered in full. We will not be able to confirm registration to your funding authority to allow any maintenance support to be released to you until your registration is completed.
- B4.4 If we have accepted your registration or enrolment and, for any reason, the payment method we have accepted is cancelled or withdrawn (for example a credit or debit card payment is not honoured by your bank or a grant or loan is withdrawn) we may cancel your registration or enrolment even if you have started studying. You will be given notice of our intention to cancel your registration or enrolment and a final opportunity to secure the payment or to pay by a different method.
- B4.5 If your registration or enrolment is cancelled under Clause B4.2 or B4.4 above it will be reinstated in the following circumstances:
- a) if you contact us within 7 calendar days of the cancellation date having secured an agreed payment method or if you provide payment by a different method; or
 - b) at The Open University’s discretion, if you contact us after 7 calendar days from the cancellation date having secured an agreed payment method or if you provide payment by a different method, and you agree to accept the potential impact any gap in your studies may have on your academic progress.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- B4.6 If your registration or enrolment is cancelled under Clause B4.2 or B4.4 above you will remain personally liable to The Open University for all the fees that are due by the date of the cancellation. If you do not pay those fees, you will be in debt to The Open University and The Open University will take action to recover that debt in line with our Student Debt Policy.
- B4.7 If you are required to pay any other charges in connection with your studies (which shall include but shall not be limited to the international examination fee or accommodation charge for a residential school) and you do not pay those charges when they become due, you may not be provided with the services or facilities to which those charges relate. If, at The Open University's discretion, the services or facilities are provided and the charges remain unpaid, you will be in debt to The Open University and The Open University will take action to recover that debt in line with our Student Debt Policy.

B5. Consequences of not paying fees or additional charges

- B5.1 If you do not pay your outstanding fees or other charges, including any further fees and other charges that may be due, i.e. all manner of debt which includes academic and non-academic debt, we may take all reasonable steps including legal action to recover those fees and other charges from you in line with our Student Debt Policy.
- B5.2 If you are in debt to The Open University for your fees or other charges (all manner of debt), we will:
- a) Notify you that you are in debt, the amount of the debt and how you may pay that debt and give you a reasonable opportunity to pay any outstanding fees or other charges before taking any further action against you in line with our Student Debt Policy.
 - b) Notify you of what action you may take, if appropriate, to limit any liability for further fees and other charges that may become due and give you a reasonable opportunity to take that action before any further liability is incurred.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- B5.3 If you are in debt to The Open University for your tuition fees or other academic charges (academic debt) we may, in addition to Section B5.2 above:
- a) cancel your registration or enrolment at any time as detailed in Section E2: The Open University's right to cancel your registration or enrolment, and/or;
 - b) only permit you to undertake further study for which any further tuition fees or other charges may become due, if you pay in advance or have another secured method of payment for those tuition fees or charges, which we have accepted, and you settle or make arrangements to settle the debt.
- B5.4 If The Open University continues, at its discretion, to provide tuition, facilities or services or allow further registration or enrolment to Students who are in debt to us, we reserve the right to take the actions mentioned above at a later date.

Section C: Your learning

C1. Registration and enrolment on a module

When you are registered or enrolled on the module(s) shown in the registration agreement:

- a) You agree to study the module materials, submit the module assessments at the times and in the manner specified and to complete the examinable component (if applicable).
- b) If you are an undergraduate Student, the assessment rules for your module will outline whether you are eligible to be offered one opportunity to resit or resubmit the examinable component, as part of your module registration.
- c) You will be provided with the module tuition, module materials and module assessments as described in the module description in the online prospectus.

C2. Assessment

- C2.1 The Open University's Code of Practice for Student Assessment will apply to the assessment of your module(s), and academic judgment will be applied by The Open University to determine the extent (if any) to which the learning outcomes of the module(s) have been met.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

C2.2 Students living in Wales have the right to submit written work in Welsh, and your work will not be treated less favourably if you do this.

C3. The Residential School element

C3.1 If your module includes a compulsory residential school element or equivalent, you must participate satisfactorily, as defined in the learning outcomes on your module description or website, or you will fail the module.

C3.2 Some modules provide an online school, which delivers the core learning outcomes of the residential school element, and which you may participate in instead of attending a residential school. If you are studying a module which does not have an online school, you must attend the residential school or equivalent, or you will fail the module.

C3.3 You must follow the procedure on your module website for booking a place at a residential school or equivalent, or on the online school. Bookings are subject to a time limit and to availability. It is your responsibility to ensure you have made a booking.

C3.4 If you do not make a booking at the appropriate time, or if you are not sure that you will be able to attend a residential school or participate in the online school you have booked, you should immediately seek advice from the Residential Schools Team.

C3.5 If you are attending a residential school in the UK and you require a visa to enter the UK, it is your responsibility to obtain the necessary 6-month standard visitor visa. We may request additional evidence from you to verify your status in the UK or ensure you are entitled to visit the UK. If you are unable to supply the necessary evidence, we may be unable to accept your registration or, if we have allowed you to register, your registration may be cancelled, and any fees refunded. Please contact us to request a letter from your Student Support Team to use in support of your application for a 6-month standard visitor visa, as the standard “Confirmation of Registration” letter/e-mail will not suffice.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

C4. Counting credit towards a qualification

If you are awarded credit for a module, you may be able to count that credit towards an Open University qualification as set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\).

C5. Notification of relevant disabilities

If you have told us that you have a disability that might affect your studies, examination or assessment, you must provide us with any further information we request so that we can comply with our responsibility to make reasonable adjustments under the Equality Act 2010 in England, Scotland and Wales; the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 for Northern Ireland; or any other statutory duty or obligation.

C6. Tutorials

C6.1 As part of studying a module, you may be offered the opportunity to attend tutorials either on a face-to-face basis or online. If you are offered face-to-face tutorials, The Open University cannot guarantee tutorial availability close to where you live, and you may need to travel to attend. The availability of face-to-face tutorials will also vary between modules and you may find that proximity or availability may decrease as the level of study increases and content is more specialised. Wherever possible we will provide an online alternative to any face-to-face tutorials so that Students who are unable to attend are not disadvantaged.

C6.2 The rules for the recording of online tutorials are set out in the Policy for the recording of online tutorials.

C7. Monitoring study

We will collect information about your participation in your studies in order to provide support services and administer funding (including the payment and suspension of grants or loans). Further information is available in the Student Privacy Notice (and Supplementary Privacy Notices if relevant to your circumstance).

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section D: Your qualification

There are four subsections in this section and you should read the one that applies to the way you are studying or the type of qualification you are studying towards.

If you are not sure which section applies to you or whether your qualification or module is undergraduate, postgraduate or an Integrated Master's Degree, you can find this information in the qualification or module information in our online prospectus or by contacting your Student Support Team.

D1. Studying modules on a standalone basis

D1.1 Who this section applies to

This section applies if you are an undergraduate or postgraduate Student studying a standalone module that is not currently counted towards any Open University qualification.

D1.2 Counting credit towards a qualification

You may be eligible to count credit you are awarded for a standalone module towards an Open University qualification as set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\). In order to do so, you must contact the Student Support Team to either register for a qualification and link your credit to that qualification or if eligible, declare a qualification and link your credit to that qualification.

D1.3 Effect of not registering for or declaring a qualification

If you are studying with the intention of claiming an Open University qualification but have not yet registered for or declared that qualification, we recommend that you do so. If you do not register for or declare a qualification:

- a) we do not guarantee to provide you with study opportunities that will enable you to achieve a qualification;
- b) you will not have access to additional facilities and resources that are provided for Students who have registered for or declared a qualification;

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- c) you will not receive specific notice of amendments to and withdrawals of qualifications or guidance that is issued to Students in those circumstances;
- d) you will not be awarded the qualification even if you have been awarded all the required credit.

D2. Students who have a declared BA/BSc Open, Diploma of Higher Education Open or Certificate of Higher Education Open

D2.1 Who this section applies to

This section applies if you are an undergraduate Student who began studying towards the BA/BSc Open, Diploma of Higher Education Open or Certificate of Higher Education Open before 1 August 2012, you have linked the modules you are studying towards that qualification, and have declared this as your qualification intention. The BA/BSc Open, Certificate and Diploma of Higher Education Open were withdrawn on 31 December 2019.

You will also be in this category if you are studying a postgraduate module as part of your declared BA/BSc Open, Diploma of Higher Education Open or Certificate of Higher Education Open.

D2.2 Your declared qualification

Your declared qualification is shown in the Registration Agreement and on StudentHome (whilst you are a registered and current Open University student). Subject to the time limits below, we will provide you with the opportunity to register for modules which may be linked to your declared qualification and, subject to the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\), to count credit awarded for completed modules that will enable you to achieve that qualification. We do not however guarantee that any module shown in the current specification for your intended qualification, will remain available in the future.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

D2.3 Time limits for linking credit to a declared qualification

You will have been required to link any credit you wish to count towards your declared Open qualification before 31 December 2019. If you have not done so, or if you have not gained sufficient credit to be awarded your declared Open qualification by the date of withdrawal, you will no longer be able to complete that qualification.

If you wish to complete an Open University qualification after 31 December 2019, you may register for a different qualification and count credit towards that qualification, under the rules which apply to that qualification and are in place at the time.

D3. Students who are registering or registered for an undergraduate qualification

D3.1. Who this section applies to

This section applies if you are registering or registered for an undergraduate qualification.

You will be in this category if:

- a) you are an undergraduate Student who first studied with The Open University after 1 August 2012, and you are studying for a qualification;
- b) you first studied before 1 August 2012 and have opted to study towards a qualification that has been introduced since August 2012;
- c) you are studying an Integrated Master's Degree;
- d) you are studying a postgraduate module as part of an undergraduate qualification that has been introduced since August 2012, or as part of an Integrated Master's Degree.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

D3.2 Your registered qualification

- a) Your registered qualification is shown in the Registration Agreement and on your StudentHome (whilst you are a current Open University Student). The Open University will provide you with the opportunity to enrol for modules for your registered qualification which will enable you to achieve that qualification. We do not however guarantee that any module or combination of modules shown in the published qualification information for your intended qualification, will remain available in the future. Section A7.5 “Our rights to make changes” outlines how we may make changes to qualifications.
- b) During the enrolment process you may be asked to make choices of subjects, modules or qualification designations. Your choices or the previous choices you have made may result in some restriction of the modules you may be able to enrol for as you progress through your qualification.

D3.3 Time limits for completing your registered qualification

- a) The Open University may set a time limit for you to complete your registered qualification. If you have not completed your registered qualification before this time limit expires, your registration for that qualification will lapse. If this happens, we will maintain your record of study and you may subsequently register on a module or a new qualification, if you are eligible to do so, by following the rules in place at the time.
- b) If notice has been given that your registered qualification will be withdrawn, you will be given a reasonable opportunity to complete the qualification before the withdrawal date, as set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\). If you have not gained sufficient credit to be awarded your registered qualification by the date of withdrawal, you will no longer be able to complete that qualification. You may be able to count your credit towards a different qualification, subject to the rules in place at the time.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

D4. Students who have declared a postgraduate qualification

D4.1 Who this section applies to

This section applies if you are a postgraduate Student who has formally declared a postgraduate qualification intention, has been accepted to study that qualification and has linked the modules you are studying towards it.

D4.2 Your declared postgraduate qualification

- a) Your declared postgraduate qualification is shown in the Registration Agreement. The Open University will provide you with the opportunity to register for modules which may be linked to your declared qualification and, subject to the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\), to count credit awarded for completed modules that will enable you to achieve that qualification. We do not however guarantee that any module or combination of modules shown in the published qualification information for your declared postgraduate qualification will remain available in the future. Section A7.5 outlines how we may make changes to qualifications.
- b) You must link any credit you wish to count towards your declared postgraduate qualification in order to be awarded that qualification.

D4.3 Time limits for your declared postgraduate qualification

If notice has been given that your declared postgraduate qualification will be withdrawn, you will be given a reasonable opportunity to complete the qualification by the withdrawal date as set out in the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\). If you have not gained sufficient credit to be awarded your declared qualification by the date of withdrawal, you will no longer be able to complete that qualification. You may be able to count your credit towards a different qualification, subject to the rules in place at the time.

Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section E: Ending your registration

E1. Cancelling your registration

E1.1 To cancel your registration or enrolment on your qualification or module, you must inform The Open University of your decision by making a clear statement by letter, email, the online or printed cancellation form, or by telephone. Full details are in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.

If you do not cancel by following the Changing Your Study Plans Policy you will not be eligible for any fee refunds or fee credits, even if you do not participate or cease to participate in learning or assessment activities.

E1.2 You must follow agreed procedures in order to cancel your registration, as follows:

a) Withdrawing your application before you are registered

If you want to withdraw your application before you are registered, you should not proceed with your registration. If The Open University has sent you a printed Registration Agreement and you have not signed and returned this agreement, do not alter or sign this agreement. Please contact us to tell us you wish to withdraw your application and we will cancel your application.

b) Withdrawing from your qualification and/or module within 14 calendar days of registration

Under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, you have a right to cancel your registration or enrolment to study a module and/or qualification, without giving any reason, within 14 calendar days of the date of the email or letter confirming The Open University's acceptance of your application to register.

If you do so, you will receive a full refund of any fees you have paid or a waiver of any fees you are liable to pay for that module.

c) Withdrawing from your qualification and/or module more than 14 calendar days after registration

If you withdraw after 14 days following the date of registration, you must follow the Changing Your Study Plans Policy. Your eligibility for a fee refund or a fee credit is set out in the Fee Rules.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- E1.3 If you withdraw from your qualification, you will not be withdrawn from any module(s) that you are registered or enrolled for unless you request this.
- E1.4 If you withdraw from a module, you will not be withdrawn from any qualification that you are registered for unless you request this, or unless the module withdrawal means that your qualification registration lapses as per Section L2 “Lapse in Registration” of Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\).
- E1.5 If you do not remain enrolled on at least one module from the first module start date following your qualification registration until at least 14 calendar days after the module begins, your qualification registration may be cancelled.
- E1.6 If you withdraw from a module, we will not send you any further module materials and you may not participate in any learning or assessment activities for that module after the date of withdrawal.

E2. The Open University’s right to cancel your registration or enrolment

- E2.1 The Open University may cancel your registration or enrolment at any time if:
- a) we find you have given us information that is false or misleading, or you do not keep your personal information up to date as set out in Section A6 (“Personal Information”);
 - b) you fail to meet any academic or administrative requirements shown in the module or qualification description;
 - c) you fail to pay your tuition fees as set out in Section B (“Your fees”) or are in debt to The Open University in respect of tuition fees or other academic charges;
 - d) you were required to make a supplementary agreement as referred to in Clause A1b\), A1c\) or A1d\) and you have failed to complete such an agreement;
 - e) you are unable to meet any conditions in a supplementary agreement that are specified as requirements for registration or continued registration;
 - f) you break any of the conditions set out in this document (and any of the other rules and regulations referred to in it) or in any supplementary agreement;

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- g) you are excluded from study as a result of a breach of the Code of Practice for Student Discipline or any breach of restrictions placed on your access to study; or due to a voluntary or imposed study break following a Fitness to Study Stage 3 Case Conference Panel in accordance with the Fitness to Study Policy;
- h) you are resident in the UK on a visa, or you are an asylum seeker or refugee with a restriction on the length of your stay within the UK, and have been asked to supply additional evidence to enable you to study certain subjects, as required by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) and outlined in Clause A5.4, but you have not supplied this evidence by the date we specify;
- i) we are unable to deliver the services you require to complete your study from your geographical location; or we find that the module and/or qualification is not available for study in the country in which you are resident;
- j) you fail to disclose any legal restrictions or conditions under Section A2 where these are relevant and unspent, in line with the Code of Practice for Student Discipline (SD1.4c, SD2.3 and SD2.4.1);
- k) your registration for a qualification lapses in accordance with Section L2 of the Academic Regulations, unless you have applied for an approved study break.

Please note that The Open University may also seek prosecution if you have supplied fraudulent information or carried out a fraudulent action.

E2.2 If The Open University cancels your registration or enrolment for a module we will not send you any further module materials and you may not participate in any learning or assessment activities for that module after the date of cancellation.

E2.3 If your registration is cancelled under Clause E2.1b), E2.1d) or E2.1e) after the module start date because you have not met the entry requirements or the regulatory requirements of either the module or the qualification, you may be entitled to a full or partial discretionary refund/fee waiver of those module fees, unless this is due to a default on your part. Please refer to the Fee Rules for more information. If this happens, you may register for or, if eligible, declare a different qualification and any credit you have been or are awarded for completed modules may, subject to the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\), be counted towards that other qualification.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

E3. Cancelling your registration when vocational and professional requirements are not met

- E3.1 We may cancel your qualification registration and/or your module registration if you have ceased to meet one of the following conditions where this is a requirement of the qualification and/or module:
- a) fitness to practise a specified profession, in line with The Open University's Fitness to Practise Procedure;
 - b) maintenance of professional standing;
 - c) satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service (or equivalent) clearance;
 - d) being employed by a specified employer;
 - e) being employed in a specified role, capacity or profession.
- E3.2 You must tell us if, at any time while you are a registered Student, you cease to meet any of these conditions that apply to you in connection with your studies.
- E3.3 If your module registration is cancelled because you have not met one of the conditions listed where that condition has been specified as an entry requirement for your module or qualification, you may be entitled to a refund or fee waiver at The Open University's discretion.
- E3.4 If your qualification registration is cancelled under Section E3 "Cancelling your registration when vocational and professional requirements are not met" and your module registration is not cancelled, you may continue to study that module and may be awarded credit for it.
- E3.5 If your qualification registration is cancelled under Section E3 "Cancelling your registration when vocational and professional requirements are not met", you may register for a different qualification and any credit you have been or are awarded for completed modules may, subject to the Academic Regulations \(Taught Courses\), be counted towards that other qualification.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section F: Computing

F1. Your Open University computing account

The Open University will provide you with a secure Open University computing account. It is your responsibility to keep your account secure and confidential. You must comply with our Student Computing Policy and Social Media Policy.

F2. Keeping your account secure

F2.1 You must notify The Open University Computing Helpdesk as soon as reasonably practicable by phoning +44 (0)1908 653972 or by emailing OU-Computing-Helpdesk if you think that there has been any loss of security on your Open University computing account.

F2.2 If you do not comply with Clause F2.1 above, you will be liable for any fraudulent transactions relating to your registration.

F3. Sharing information in online activities

Your Open University computing account enables you to participate in online activities. These may include compulsory activities for your module. When you participate in these activities, your name, preferred email address, your Open University Computer Username (OUCU) and the content you contribute, will be displayed online to Students and Open University staff who have a need to see the information concerned.

F4. The Computing Policy and Social Media Policy

F4.1 When you register to study with The Open University you agree to comply with the Student Computing Policy and Social Media Policy.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section G: How we will communicate with you

G1. Students living in Wales

If you live in Wales and would like to receive correspondence in Welsh, please indicate this on your StudentHome profile.

G2. By email

G2.1 All students must provide us with a valid email address, which we will use to correspond with you. You must inform us of any changes to your preferred email address by updating your personal profile on StudentHome.

G2.2 It is your responsibility to check your email regularly. You will be sent important information about your registration and about your studies by email. It is also your responsibility to manage any filters on your account to ensure that email from The Open University is sent into your 'Inbox' and not to a 'spam' or 'junk' email folder. You should ensure that your inbox has an adequate amount of space to receive messages from The Open University. The Open University will not be responsible for any failure to receive emails if these Conditions of Registration are not adhered to.

G3. Through 'StudentHome'

Your Open University computing account will include access to a personalised Open University website called 'StudentHome'. This website will include details of the personal information we hold about you and it will provide you with access to some study materials and a range of other resources that will support your studies. We will also use StudentHome to post messages that will be relevant to you, and that may not be provided by any other media. It is your responsibility to check StudentHome regularly. Please note that access to StudentHome will be removed if your registration status has lapsed, in line with Clause E2.1.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

G4. Through Open University websites

Your Open University studies will also provide you with access to module and qualification websites where available. These websites will provide access to learning materials and other learning resources and may be used to post messages about your modules and/or qualification that may not be provided by any other media. It is your responsibility to check your module and, if applicable, qualification or study websites regularly.

G5. Recording telephone calls

We may monitor and record phone calls between you and The Open University to make sure that we have carried out your instructions correctly and to help us improve our services through staff training.

G6. Safeguarding duty

If you or another party disclose any information to us via the communication methods listed in G1-G5 of this document that affects our statutory Safeguarding responsibilities (in line with the Safeguarding Policy and Section A3), Open University employees or agents have a statutory obligation to share relevant information with the internal Safeguarding team or external parties (for example, Child and Adult Protection Services, or the emergency services).

G7. Prevent Duty

If you or another party disclose any information to us via the communication methods listed in G1-G5 of this document that affects our statutory Prevent duty responsibilities (in line with The Open University Prevent Principles and Section A3), Open University employees or agents have a statutory obligation to share relevant information with the internal Prevent team or external parties (for example the police and Channel).

Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Section H: Using Library facilities

If you use the Open University Library services, you will be bound by our Copyright Regulations which you will be asked to agree to when you first use those services.

Section I: Indemnity insurance

The Open University does not have indemnity insurance for Students carrying out research related to their studies (except for Postgraduate Research Students who register directly through us). If you need indemnity cover (for example, to meet the conditions of an ethics committee), you will need to arrange this yourself.

Section J: Affiliation with Third-Party Organisations

- J1. Any affiliation or promotion of The Open University must be initiated by The Open University.
- J2. Open University Students are not permitted to promote anything for payment or other remuneration purposes on behalf of, or purporting to be on behalf of, The Open University,.
- J3. Students are not permitted to promote their views as representing or as being on behalf of The Open University.
- J4. Students are free to express their political, religious, social and academic views both in private and in public provided this is explicitly done in their own name and not in the name of The Open University. By registering to study with The Open University you are agreeing to abide by the Social Media Policy as outlined in Clause F4.
- J5. If you are approached by a third-party organisation to represent The Open University, you should refer the third-party organisation to contact The Open University directly with their request.
- J6. Any failure to meet Clauses J2-J5 could be treated as a breach of the Code of Practice for Student Discipline (see Section A10: Student discipline and academic misconduct).

Glossary of terms

BSc (Hons) Combined STEM

This allows you to tailor an honours degree to your needs and interests across a range of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) modules, including psychology and sports science, or focus on one or two specific areas.

Case Conference Panel

The role of the Case Conference Panel is to review the progress of your case and to decide how to proceed with your case where continuing concerns have not been fully resolved by following an agreed Action Plan. The Panel when first convened will choose one of three options:

- 1) to develop an Enhanced Action Plan with you,
- 2) to approve a Break in Study for you (if appropriate) and define what support will be put in place for you when you return to study or
- 3) to instigate disciplinary action (please refer to the Code of Practice for Student Discipline).

The Panel will also be consulted at appropriate review points to support ongoing decisions on your case at this stage.

In addition to you and any Advocate nominated by you, the Panel will comprise of academic and student support staff (including disability support specialists where appropriate), relevant to the nation and the qualification that you are studying (please refer to Fitness to Study Policy to access procedural information for Stage 3, Significant Concerns).

Certificate of Higher Education

This means an undergraduate qualification of at least 120 credits, including 60 credits at Open University first level and 60 credits at Open University first level or above.

Conferred

This refers to when the award of the qualification has been formally ratified at a meeting of congregation (Council and Senate), following which the formal certificate is issued.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Course

The taught courses described within these Conditions of Registration refer specifically to

- 1) a module studied as a standalone course;
- 2) an undergraduate or postgraduate qualification; and
- 3) any module studied as part of a qualification.

Other forms of courses exist across The Open University which are not covered by these Conditions of Registration: for example research degrees, short courses, Professional Development (PD) courses, and Microcredentials.

Credit/Credits

This means a value which is related to the workload required to successfully complete a module. One credit represents about 10 hours of study. You will be awarded credits when you successfully complete a module, so if you pass a 60-credit module you will be awarded 60 credits. Some modules have a zero-credit value.

Declared Qualification

This means a qualification that you have told us that you are studying towards and to which you are linking the modules that you study and are awarded credit for.

Declared undergraduate qualifications are the qualifications offered prior to 2012 which we have given notice as being phased out. Most declared undergraduate qualifications ceased to be available after 31 December 2017. Declared Open qualifications ceased to be available after 31 December 2019.

Disclosure

This means to make current legal restrictions, conditions or arrangements related to criminal convictions known to The Open University when you register or during your time studying with us.

Enhanced Learning Credit

This refers to a funding method provided by the Ministry of Defence to sponsor their Armed Forces personnel to improve their education.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Enrolment

This means the process by which a Student who is registered for a qualification is allocated to a module which will be studied as part of that qualification.

Final Enrolment Date

This means the last date that a reservation can be made for a module in a specific presentation period. It will be published in the online prospectus and on StudentHome.

Integrated Master's Degree

An integrated Master's degree is an undergraduate qualification at FEHQ Level 7. It requires at least 480 credits, of which 360 are at undergraduate level with at least 240 credits above first level, and at least 120 credits at third level and a further 120 credits at postgraduate level.

Lapse in registration

If your registration on a qualification or module lapses, you cease to be a registered Student of The Open University. A lapse in registration is not the same as the registration being cancelled by you or by The Open University.

- a) Your registration as a Student of The Open University will lapse if you do not subsequently register for a module or qualification within two academic years following the academic year in which you began study of that module, unless you have applied for an approved study break as set out in the Changing Your Study Plans Policy.
- b) If you are registered for a qualification, your registration for a qualification will lapse if:
 - (i) In the case of the first module presentation following your qualification registration, you do not remain enrolled on at least one module in that presentation for at least 14 calendar days after the start date of that module.
 - (ii) You do not enrol for a module which counts towards your qualification and remain enrolled for at least 14 calendar days after the start date of that module in two successive academic years, unless you have formally deferred your enrolment in at least one of those years.
 - (iii) If you have not completed the qualification within the specified maximum time limit.

Appendix

Ap 1. Disclosure of legal restrictions and conditions

Ap 1.1 Students who have an unspent criminal conviction in a relevant area, are required to disclose this unspent conviction at the point of registering to study at The Open University. You may do this by:

- a) Requesting a self-declaration form to disclose your unspent conviction from the Community Support Team, Students in Secure Environments.
- b) Disclosing the fact that you have an unspent criminal conviction to any member of staff, and by any means. Upon this disclosure you will be informed by the member of staff that the information within the disclosure will be referred onto the Students in Secure Environments Team (SiSE) as part of the Community Support Framework. You will then be required to complete a self-declaration of disclosure. If you have not been asked to complete a self-declaration of disclosure by the SiSE team, please contact The Community Support Team, Students in Secure Environments directly to request a self-declaration form to disclose your unspent conviction.

Relevant areas of conviction include, but are not limited to, one or more of the offences listed below:

- i. Offences listed in the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (in the United Kingdom; or equivalent Act for outside of the United Kingdom);
- ii. Any kind of violence including (but not limited to) threatening behaviour, offences concerning the intention to harm, or offences which resulted in actual bodily harm;

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

- iii. Offences listed in the Terrorism Act 2006 (in the United Kingdom; or equivalent Act for outside of the United Kingdom);
- iv. The unlawful supply of controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking;
- v. Offences involving firearms, weapons, crossbows and knives;
- vi. Offences involving arson;
- vii. Fraud;
- viii. Offences of human trafficking, slavery and forced labour;
- ix. Offences related to any person under 18 considered a child under English law- see Children Act 2004.

Ap 2. Failure to disclose legal restrictions and conditions

Ap 2.1 The Open University will regard a failure to disclose any legal restrictions and conditions that you are currently subject to or become subject to during the course of study as a very serious matter and may decide to take further action under the Code of Practice for Student Discipline. See Clause A2.5 for details.

Ap 3. Data protection

Ap 3.1 All records and correspondence relating to your disclosure will be securely stored in accordance with The Open University's Student Privacy Notice (and Supplementary Privacy Notices if relevant to your circumstance).

Ap 3.2 Any disclosure to use a service (e.g. careers advice) is dealt with confidentially, and you will only be asked for the information relevant to the service you require.

Ap 3.3 Your consent will always be obtained before seeking further information about any disclosure from third parties.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Ap 4. Additional conditions for Students who are in prison

The following additional Conditions of Registration are applicable to Students who are in prison.

Ap 4.1 If you are prisoner in England or Wales the Registration Agreement is subject to the Prison Services Instruction PSI 32/2012 (Open University, Higher Education and Distance Learning) or any other Prison Services Instruction which replaces, amends or supplements it. If you become a prisoner while you are registered for a qualification or enrolled for a module, this agreement will become subject to that Instruction from the date on which you are imprisoned. You may not register for a qualification or enrol for modules or remain registered for a qualification or enrolled for modules except as permitted under the Instruction currently in force. Details of qualifications and modules that are available for study by prisoners under the Instruction will be provided in The Open University Guide for Learners in Secure Environments.

Ap 4.2 If you are a prisoner in Scotland an application to register for a qualification or enrol for modules will only be accepted if made under the Scottish Prison Service Higher Education Access Scheme and this Registration Agreement is subject to the terms of that Scheme. If you become a prisoner while you are registered for a qualification or enrolled for a module this agreement will become subject to that Scheme from the date on which you are imprisoned. You may not register for a qualification or enrol for modules or remain registered for a qualification or enrolled for modules except as permitted under the Scheme currently in force. Details of qualifications and modules that are available for study by prisoners under the Scheme will be provided in The Open University Guide for Learners in Secure Environments.

Ap 4.3 If you are a prisoner in Northern Ireland this Registration Agreement is subject to The Open University Northern Ireland Prison Service Scheme. If you become a prisoner while you are registered for a qualification or enrolled for a module this agreement will become subject to that Scheme from the date on which you are imprisoned. You may not register for a qualification or enrol for modules or remain registered for a qualification or enrolled for modules except as permitted under the Scheme currently in force. Details of qualifications and modules that are available for study by prisoners under the Scheme will be provided in The Open University Guide for Learners in Secure Environments.

Version number: Version: 1.0	Approved by: Delegate of Director, Academic Services
Effective from: 1 August 2022	Date for review: March 2023

Ap 4.4 If you are a prisoner in the Republic of Ireland this Registration Agreement is subject to The Open University Irish Prison Service Scheme. If you become a prisoner while you are registered for a qualification or enrolled for a module this agreement will become subject to that Scheme from the date on which you are imprisoned. You may not register for a qualification or enrol for modules or remain registered for a qualification or enrolled for modules except as permitted under the Scheme currently in force. Details of qualifications and modules that are available for study by prisoners under the Scheme will be provided in The Open University Guide for Learners in Secure Environments.

Ap 4.5 If you are a prisoner outside the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland you may not register or enrol to study with The Open University. If you become a prisoner outside the United Kingdom or Republic of Ireland while you are registered for a qualification or enrolled for a module, your registration and enrolment will be cancelled with effect from the date on which you are imprisoned, and any fees incurred from the point your registration is cancelled by The Open University will be refunded to you.
